D. C. IRELAND & CO. PUBLISHERS,
McMinnville, Or. - Nov. 27, 1886

McMinnville never was so lively before on Thanksgiving day as it was this week.

Look at the prizes at Grissen's; and also at Rogers & Todd's and E. B. Fellows'.

The firemen's ball was a most enjoyable one, and a surfeit of satisfaction to all concerned.

Capt. W. S. Powell, of Dayton, called on Thanksgiving and made his thank offering to the Reporter.

Mrs. D. A. Wallace spent Thanksgiving, and a birthday (here 26) with her parents in Corvallis.

Uncle James Fletcher has got back to old Yamhill, safe and sound from his journey east, glad to get home. He was not snowed in.

Clay pigeon shooting was enjoyed by our sporting "best shots" to their hearts content, on Thursday, just across the Yamhill river.

J. E. and Cooper Brooks, and Maine Berry, returned from a prospecting jaunt far up into the Cascade range this week. They were absent six weeks, and had a splendid time.

Take a look into the store of Baxter & Martin, and if you do not find things in fine style, suited to the taste of the most fastidious, we shall miss our guess somewhat.

Mrs. Banister has our thanks for a bountiful remembrance on Thanksgiving. As she is the mother of a printer-editor she can more fully than many others realize our appreciation.

An interesting programme, consisting of music, elocution and tableaux, will be rendered at the Episcopal church fair, at the Opera house, December 1st. Refreshments will be served.

Detmering's window, decorated with all the good things furnished by the bountiful hand of Providence, was greatly admired on the 25th. Indeed, well might all exclaim, Let us be Thankful.

We invite special attention to the card of Dr. Taylor this a. m. His office is with Dr. H. V. V. Johnson, and as he charges nothing for consultation, and upon the basis of no cure no pay, persons afflicted with piles or fistula, his specialty, should give him a call. Dr. Taylor is not a stranger in our midst.

Yesterday morning about four o'clock, after a long chase, Addie Braly and his associates were rewarded by capturing a red fox. The animal eluded them for many hours, but was finally taken in. During the afternoon of the 25th they also captured a coon. Both animals were taken not far from the Riverside farm.

The Hibbs case will be called in the United States court at Lewiston on the 7th of December. As it now stands it is the United States vs. Hibbs. When next called it may be Hibbs vs. the United States, as the Telegram says he is likely to escape on a technicality, in which event he will compel a return of the money taken from him and damages for false imprisonment, injury to business, reputation, etc.

The new fire bell tolled its first story yesterday.

A cultus cur was dispatched by the city marshal's trusty gun yesterday. Several more of the same sort need similar treatment.

A gang of young vandals did a shameful piece of work right before last upon the windows of Wm. Campbell's house, lately vacated by Mr. Snyder.

The ladies society of the C. P. church have decided to postpone their entertainment till January or February 1887, instead of giving it Dec. 10th, 1886, as heretofore announced.

McMinnville has the material for a first class rod and gun club. There is Drs. Goucher and Howard, Messrs. Geo. W. Jones, F. W. Redmond, John Wortman, J. F. Wisecarver, Hibbs and many others who take much pleasure in this sport, and who would form the nucleus of a powerful rifle team. What say you, gentlemen?

After which there will be singing and recitations by the children, also short speeches from different ministers. Parents and friends of the children are cordially invited.

Thanksgiving day passed off very pleasantly in McMinnville. The union service at the C. P. church was largely attended, and a very instructive sermon listened to from Rev. Mr. Satchwell. A social service was held at the Episcopal church, at which a most excellent sermon was delivered by the rector, and a liberal offering made in behalf of Good Samaritan Hospital.

Remember that there is a home nursery at Lafayette, when you want trees. Address E. R. Poppleton.

Ladies' Cloaks.

These cloaks have got to go because I am not going to winter them over this summer, so if you want a long cloak or a short cloak, a big cloak or a little cloak, a dear cloak or a cheap cloak, a tight fitting or Miss Fitting cloak, or any kind of a fit in cloaks, go to Appersons.

A Bargain.

The Exchange hotel of North Yamhill, containing twenty-two rooms in all, two stories high, is offered for sale for cash, or exchange for real estate. The house is well known to the traveling public, and doing a good business. The present proprietor's reason for selling is that he is too far advanced in age to attend to it, and is determined to sell if an opportunity is offered, even at a sacrifice. In fact he is bound to sell if a customer comes. North Yamhill is as rapidly improving town as any on the west side, is the center of a large trade, the starting point for Tillamook bay, the resort for hunters and sportsmen in the summer season, and this is the best chance for a good man in the whole state. For further particulars address this office, or apply to J. Delap, North Yamhill, Oregon.

Watch This Art Gallery.

This is the time of year when Merchants all begin to show low prices. We realize that permanent trade cannot be made unless one has the correct styles and correct prices. We are selling goods at astonishingly low prices on the merits of our wares. We know that there are no better styles of Clothing, no better fitting, no better made than ours, and we believe that no one in McMinnville is selling Clothing as cheaply as we are.

We only ask an inspection of our goods and a comparison of prices.
