The fremens ball gross receipts were $44.25. Expenses $39.20, net profits $5.05, and ship loads of "a good time."

Ah Sam unluckily slipped on the walk yesterday, and fell through the St. Charles window, as he was passing with a pack of clothes. He cut his arm badly.

The new party organized by Henry George, Bill McCabe, et al., expect to ride into power in 1888 as easy as a streak of greased lightning.

Ira Russ of Portland, surprised his brother and family, the Rev. Russ of this city, by coming up Saturday evening and spent Sunday here. He returned by the morning train yesterday.

The duration of the blizzard in Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota and the territories is almost equal to its area. It began November 15th, and at last accounts was still a blizzard.

A six foot panther was brought in by Joe Hendricks yesterday. The panther was also hunted by Am Shadden, George Bangasser and Fred Keller. When Hendricks shot the beast it made for Am, but the dogs got away with it.

Postmaster Wiscarver, with a view to the fullest accommodation possible to the dear public, intends to put in a front door 36 feet wide at the post office. This will accommodate all who wish to stand in the door way while the mail is being distributed inside, without inconvenience to the females on the outside.

It may be news to some persons that persistent rubbing with oil night and morning will remove scars. Olive oil will answer, but neats-foot oil is rather more rapid in its affect. In the case of burns, when the tendons are stiff and contracted, rubbing with oil will render the part affected almost as supple as before the injury. In severe cases the rubbing must be continued for an hour, morning and evening.

In embroidery much use is made of stout white sheeting. Some of the patterns of the India cotten bedspreads are outlined on unsized sheeting and worked in crewels, blue, pink or green, always in one color only for the whole pattern. Old-gold colored silk makes beautiful etching outlines on white sheeting. For the white enameled furniture, China-gloss painting, as it is called, bureau scarfs and bedspreads of unbleached linen are worked with pale-brown crewel.

A change of firm at Rogers & Todd's to-morrow.

Senator Mitchell left Portland for Washington on the 25th.

Congress comences on the second Thursday in December.

Dr. Goucher was called to Amity yesterday to attend Rev. Dr. Doty.

A. S. Bible, of Sheridan, passed through, on business to Portland.

Services at the M. E. church every evening this week, Rev. Mr. Satchwell presiding.

C. A. Sweet lost a fine fresh cow yesterday, by choking on a feed of pumpkin.

D. B. Putman, jr., of Amity, was in the city yesterday. We acknowledge a pleasant visit.

Dr. W. H. Saylor, and Frank his brother, spent Sunday at their old home in this city.

Fred Keller was confined to his house yesterday by a billious attack, and called Dr. Calbreath.

E. M. Underwood gave such satisfaction as teacher in District No. 6, that he has been re-employed.

Mr. Bowers little boy, living up near the mill, was hurt badly by a kick from a mule on the 28th.

J. M. Martin has transferred his Reporter from Weston to this city. H. D. Burdette from this city to Pendleton.

Am Shadden has just butchered 13 head of hogs, averaging 180 lbs each. He has boodles of sausages on hand now to dry.

Chas. Frush, Uncle Sams efficient deputy marshal, passed through yesterday upon official business to the agency at Grand Ronde.

The new Baptist church at Dayton was dedicated on Sunday. This is the first brick edifice for church purposes, built in the Pacific Northwest by that denomination.

Mrs. Ramsdell, of Portland, is on a visit to friends in the city, and will participate at the entertainment to-morrow evening by the ladies Guild of St. James (Episcopal) church.

A little bag of mustard laid on the pickle jar will prevent the vinegar from becoming moldy if the pickles have been put up in vinegar that has not been boiled.

Farmers on the west-side will not necessarily go to Salem more now than previous to the construction of the bridge, because they can buy goods cheaper and better from merchants in McMinnville.

Flowers of sulphur sprinkled on a hot shovel and the fumes inhaled while they are fresh will cure cold in the head. A teaspoonful of sulphur is sufficient and does not cause disagreeable sensations.

Capt. Jerome was buried in River-view Park on Sunday. The ORN Co. placed his steamer, the Orient, at the service of family and friends on this occasion, and the mournful errand was typified by the flags and emblems at half mast on the trip. Peace to his ashes.

G. W. Keen, of Washington, Indiana, elder brother of W. B., reached North Yamhill on the 25th with his family. He was in the city yesterday purchasing his house keeping outfit, and called in to say that in future he would take his Reporter nearer home. We welcome him to Webfoot.

Tablau, "Popping the question."

Indiana democrats expect to unseat enough republicans to secure the United States senator. It will not work without a more Payneul disaster than that which befel the Ohio scheme.

The idea that Blaine snubbed Edmunds at Arthur's funeral perhaps germinated in the addled pate of some dude reporter. It is as silly as the story annexed to it about Conkling's last interview with Arthur.

A conflict between Agent Coffey and Father Conrady, on the Umatilla Indian reservation, has caused Archbishop Gross to temporarily excommunicate Agent Coffey and his daughter, and forbid them any more partaking of the communion of the Catholic church.

Can it be possible that the Detroit-Florida Senator Jones is in luck again. The old man died last week leaving the daughter Miss Clothilde Palms sole heir to the estate, presumed to be up in the millions. It is generally understood that Miss P. is annoyed by Jones, but as he elected himself United States Senator it is not barely possible he may yet cast a winning glance in the right direction.

London is no longer exempt from the vilest of scandals. The latest concerns Lady Colin Campbell's application for divorce, which show that that licentious old hog is lower in the scale of humanity than the most despicable offscouring in America, hateful in the sight of God and man. It matters not that he is the son of the Duke of Argyll, his rotten carcass should be cremated for the sake of decency. Royalty, is it?

Vice President Wheeler is a victim of disease that promises to relieve him of existence at an early day. Hopeless insomnia renders his condition so pitiable that death would not be an unwelcome visitant to him. He is still comparatively a young man, and his disease, being but a type of the same that has just added the name of Arthur to its long list of victims, warns other men, whose lives are running in paths parallel to those that they have trod, to put down the brakes before a similar fate overtakes them.

Russia appears to be consummating by marriage what she failed in for want of funds. This comes about by placing Prince Nicholas over Bulgaria. His loyalty to Russia through his marriage to Princess Marie, daughter of Alexander Adlerberg, general and minister of the imperial court of Russia, and of Countess Catherine, maid of honor to the empress, is assured, and means the death of Bulgarian independence; for, under the rule of a mere puppet of the czar, Russia can make Bulgaria and eastern Roumelia her own for any warlike purposes whenever she chooses to occupy them in pursuance of her purpose to possess Constantinople.

Watch This Art Gallery.

This is the time of year when Merchants all begin to show low prices. We realize that permanent trade cannot be made unless one has the correct styles and correct prices. We are selling goods at astonishingly low prices on the merits of our wares. We know that there are no better styles of Clothing, no better fitting, no better made than ours, and we believe that no one in McMinnville is selling Clothing as cheaply as we are.

We only ask an inspection of our goods and a comparison of prices.
