RING THE CHANGES.

Ring Out the Old - Ring in the New.

In view of some changes in the business world, as well as among producers and laborers, it is well that we should one and all think of our own interests as well as that of others, and once in a while call a halt, take account of what stock we have on hand, whether it be in cattle, horses, merchandise or farms, and ascertain for ourselves our present condition and future prospects, and make such changes from time to time as each of us, after mature deliberations, find our better judgments may indicate. In view of these things I shall introduce to you on or about New Years, New Styles, New Goods, and a Radical change in the management of the Business which I trust may prove to our mutual advantage. It is with this object in view that it to be adopted. It will, upon investigation, be found simple and just to one and all. The time is past when a man can sell goods on one year or for an indefinite period, and compete with those who sell exclusively for cash. I shall on or about Jan. 1st introduce to you a system possessing all the advantages of both the credit and the cash systems, and none of the disadvantages of either.

A. J. APPERSON.

Special Notice.

In view of the change soon to take place, I desire all accounts to be settled by the 1st of Jan. A word to the wise is sufficient. Call and settle.

A. J. APPERSON.

Call and See Me.

About the first day of January I expect to pay up all my debts, but in order to do so I must call upon all who are owing me to come forward and pay their accounts. So if you are indebted to me this is a notice to pay up and save costs. I mean business.

F. DEILSCHNIDER,
 Opposition Boot and Shoe House.

A Bargain.

The Exchange hotel of North Yamhill, containing twenty-two rooms in all, two stories high, is offered for sale for cash, or exchange for real estate. The house is well known to the traveling public, and doing a good business. The present proprietor's reason for selling is that he is too far advanced in age to attend to it, and is determined to sell if an opportunity is offered, even at a sacrifice. In fact he is bound to sell if a customer comes. North Yamhill is as rapidly improving town as any on the west side, is the center of a large trade, the starting point for Tillamook bay, the resort for hunters and sportsmen in the summer season, and this is the best chance for a good man in the whole state. For further particulars address this office, or apply to J. Delap, North Yamhill, Oregon.

Testimony of a Druggist.

The Swift Specific Co.—Gentlemen. We are gratified to report that Aaron Blaydes, living near this place, and who has been suffering with a severe case of blood poison, is now well. He was cured by Swift's Specific. He was blind, and his body was covered with eating sores. His sufferings were intense, and he seemed on the verge of the Stygian river, and had made every preparation to go to "that bourne from whence no traveler returns." We furnished him with a supply of Swift's Specific, and he is now well. Truly Yours. T. Caven & Co. Druggists, Atlanta, Texas, Sept. 10, 1886.

A Golden Opinion.

The Swift Specific Co.—Gentlemen: I have used your Specific in a number of cases in the last twelve months, always finding good results. At present I have a patient in my charge who has a cancer. I am treating him on Swift Specific alone, and believe it will effect a cure, and can safely recommend it to the public as being one of the best blood purifiers I have ever tried. W. S. Golden, M. D., Worthville, Ky., Aug. 11, 1886.
