In requirement with law, the proclamation for the recent election was published three months in half a dozen newspapers. The bills are now in and will be an interesting study to advertisers and taxpayers The Alta is the most modest in its demands, and only asks for $1,170 for the taking of column of its valuable space. Secretary of state Thompson's paper comes next in liberality. and desires the sum of $1,254 for the same advertisement. Jos. D. Lynch, who was defeated for congress, but says he will contest, doubtless puts in a few dollars for election expenses, as the bill of the Los Angeles Herald is $1,-368. The Record-Union modestly puts in a bill for $1,455 for the monopolization of space that otherwise could have been devoted to Sunday sermons. The San Francisco Post, recognizing the importance of the evening papers on the western borders of the world, wants to get its fins in to the extent of $1,800, while the Examiner hopes to lessen the pressure on "Uncle George's" sack by coolly asking for $2,052. This makes a total of $9,099. But, good gracious, brethren, get in: the state's rich.

Misdirected Sympathy.

San Francisco Examiner.

Recently several gentlemen Dressmaking. talking about the revolting murder of little Mamie Kelly, by that wretch in human form, weeks until there will be petitions pouring into this office, and personal applications made, for executive clemency in the case. It is strange," he said, "to note the number of women who would flock around such criminals, and use every influence in behalf of such wretches." He spoke of the case of George W. Wheeler, who so brutally strangled his sister-in-law, Adelia Tillson, and hid her body away in the trunk. Women flocked to his cell, the air of his dungeon was perfumed with roses they daily laid at his feet, and ladies, old and young, who used every effort to save him from the gallows. One highly respectable married lady in San Francisco wrote him a long letter, imploring him to pardon Wheeler. At the close of the communication she said: "Dear Governor: You are a married man, and I understand have a grown up son. What would you do if your son was in Wheeler's place?" The Governor said; "I thought I would reply to that letter, and did so in this brief language: 'Dear madam: I understand you are a married woman, and have a grown-up daughter. What would you do if your daughter was in Adelia Tillson's place? It is needless to add," the Governor remarked, "I never received a reply to my epistle."

Notice To My Patrons.

In consequence of declining health, which prevents me from making personal applica-tion to parties indebted. I am compelled to thus publicly say that all bills due and un-stettled January 1st 1887 will be placed in other hands for collection. WM. H. BINGHAM. McMinnville, Or., Dec. 2d, 1886.

RING THE CHANGES.

Ring Out the Old - Ring in the New. In view of some changes in the business world, as well as among producers and laborers it is well that we should one and all think of our own interests as well as that of others, and once in a while call a halt, take account of what stock we have on hand, whether it be in cattle, horses, merchandise or farms, and ascertain for were in the Governor's office ourselves our present condition and future prospects, and make such changes from time to time as each of us, after mature deliberations, find our better judgments may indicate. In Goldenson, when the Governor view of these things I shall introduce remarked: "I won't be two to you on or about New Years, New Styles, New Goods, and a Radical change in the management of the Business which I trust may prove to our mutual advantage. It is with this object in view that it to be adopted. It will, upon investigation, be found simple and just to one and all. The time is past when a man can sell goods on one year or for an indefinite period, and compete with those who sell exclusively for cash. I shall on or about Jan. 1st introduce to you a system possessing all the advantages of both the credit and the cash sytems, and none of the disadvantages of either.

A. J. APPERSON.

Special Notice.

In view of the change soon to take place, I desire all accounts to be settled by the 1st of Jan. A word to the wise is sufficient. Call and settle.
