McMinnville, Or. - Dec. 16, 1886

A. H. Hodson went to Portland on business yesterday.

It rained delightfully yesterday, which gave the farmers a rest.

Thanks to Chas. L. Fay, Portland, for an elegant calendar for 1887.

If you want buy a gun, go to W. F. Collard. Remember he will sell them at Portland prices.

The Presbyterian Sunday school have joined with the Christmas tree for the public school.

The Columbia Bicycle Calendar for '87, just issued by the Pope Manufacturing Co., of Boston, is a truly artistic and elegant work in chromo-lithography and letterpress.

Pupils of St James Episcopal Sunday school, are requested to meet at the church Friday afternoon at 4:15 to practice singing. Rev. Mr. Fair and others will be present.

The F. W. Baltes Co., Portland, turn out the most elegant, handsome and convenient calendar of any publishing house in Oregon. But it is only a fair sample, after all, of their daily work.

Why do you pay for inferior silver plated table ware big prices, if you get at the McMinnville jewelry store, Wm. Holl, the best and finest can be had for the same price.

The young men of this city have established an Athletic club. The officers are: John Clark president; Henry Beevy secretary; and Ed. W. Fuller treasurer. Mohawk hall has been secured.

We acknowledge calls yesterday from several of the stalwart citizens of North Yamhill, including Messrs. Wm. and Warren Merchant, and A. D. Runnels. This is the first call of Mr. Runnels since his return from a visit to the cyclone regions beyond the Rockies.

It is said by two prominent Portland Irishmen that McCafferty, the recently appointed collector of customs at Sitka, claims to be the mysterious No. 1, connected with the assassination in Phoenix Park, Dublin. Where will he get his $50,000 bonds?

The water committee of the Portland city council have bought the plant and works of the Portland water company for $450,000. The income of the company for the year closing will amount to $86,000. No more legislative blood sucking from that source. John we congratulate you; you can now learn what it is to be "an humble civilian." The legislature will be asked, however, to grant authority to issue additional bonds to the amount of $300,000 to permit the waters of Bull Run to flow through the mains and pipes.

Dr. G. F. Tucker and son Carl made a trip below yesterday.

Miss Coleman of St. Paul, Marion county, sang at the Catholic church last Sunday evening. She possesses a most beautiful voice.

The cornice, sashes, doors and ornamental carvings for Hon. W. J. McConnell's Moscow residence were manufactured in Forest Grove.

The latest edition of Oregon As it Is, reads well, but it is a blacksmith of a job so far as printing is concerned. The contents are the best yet given.

Mickel's valise has been found out open under Couch wharf. That he has been foully dealt with is now almost positive. The Knights Templar offer $200 for the recovery of his body. Six hundred dollars are offered for the arrest of the perpetrator of the crime.

Occasionally a queer customer presents himself at the stamp window of the post-office. Yesterday an old coon from New Philadelphia, called at the window, and in a voice of much earnestness inquired: "Got any postigeerds for Shipley?" "Yes, uncl. How many will you have?" asked the polite clerk. "A quart, boss," came a prompt answer. Frank laughed and informed his customer that they were not selling "postigeerds" by the quart this week, and he left, apparently vexed with the post master that he could not be accomodated.

Subscribe for the Reporter, and pay for it when you subscribe, and we will pledge ourselves to give you more news, for less money, than any other paper in the Willamette valley. The Daily will help the weekly 100 per cent.

A writer in the Statesman thinks that instead of a reform school for hoodlums of both sexes, a reservation should be created for the purpose of colonizing parents of ungovernable children of Oregon; and that all children at weaning time to be taken from the reservation and placed in the reformatory school for a term of years, where they may be properly reared.

Already people in Portland are beginning to observe that it is "easier to ride over a ferry than to walk over a bridge." They can soon have the satisfaction of paying their money and taking their choice. If it was a free bridge such as unites Polk and Marion, then might they apostrophize to Stark street:

Ferryboat rest! Thy work is done,
Sleep the sleep that knows no breaking,
Dream of ferrying men no more;
Through days of rain, and nights of waking
