> It is barely possible that Prof. Campbell, who has been giving a series of lectures at the Christian church in this city, may be secured to remain with the congregation until the arrival of the minister who has accepted a call and will leave Missouri early in January to take charge of the church work here for the ensuing year.

Bear this in Mind.

By way of explanation we wish to digress once more to say that the man or woman who asserts that we are pejudiced in favor of this or that church to the extent that we will not be impartial in publication of church notices, is either a fool or a knave. Certainly not a christian; and we write this with a full understanding of the purport of the remark.
