

The Daily Reporter.

D. C. IRELAND & CO. PUBLISHERS.

McMinnville, Or. - Dec. 22, 1886

This is bad weather for locals. Very bad indeed.

Hon. H. Hurley of Lafayette, is still confined to his room in Salem.

Miss Russ has sold goods this week for presents in California, Nebraska, and Kansas.

The Christmas tree at St. James (Episcopal) church will be at 6 o'clock Friday p. m.

The finest beef in the state at the Eurisko market yesterday. Some of the same sort to-day.

The Central hotel will be relet next month, as L. H. Cook expects soon to be in his own.

It is thought that Prof. Jordan will succeed Prof. Price in the McMinnville public schools.

The weather yesterday was our worst. We hear snow fell liberally in the mountains about us.

Hon. Jas. McCain was in the city yesterday as an agent of Santa Claus for a Christmas tree at home.

If you wish to listen to the patter of the rain upon the roof slip into S. A. Manning & Co.'s work shop.

The Academic Class were entertained at a splendid party at Prof. Crawford's residence Friday evening.

We observe by our Salem cotemporaries that W. F. Lemon is about to quit business with the close of the year.

D. I. Corkers tool chest, made of solid birdseye maple, sixteen yeas ago, has been purchased by John W. Baker, of this city.

Wanted, somebody to build in this city, in a desirable locality, two neat family cottages, to let to permanent and cash tenants, for a term of years. Apply at this office.

The coming woman will plan a big closet in each sleeping room, with a window for ventilation, if a possible thing. It will not be a receptacle for old boots or shoes, nor antiquated bonnets, hats or soiled clothing. There will be plenty of hooks at the proper height for her to reach, not the carpenter; not forgetting to put those in the children's closets at suitable height for them. The children will be remembered in this house and will have a room with hard wood floor where all their belongings can be kept, and they can play to their heart's content, not to be told not to do this or that for fear of hurting the carpet or furniture; where everything shall be usable and hangable, plenty of old chairs and boxes for steam cars and circuses; where they can decorate the walls with pictures, and have a good time generally.

The committee will meet at J. A. C. Freund's office at 9:30 this a. m.

Mrs. Vanatta will take charge of ladies handiwork to be displayed in the windows of the store of W. H. Bingham. Wreaths, wax work, etc., of every class may be left at the store to-day.

Do not forget the children at the Opera house Christmas eve. Where those desirous of following the time honored custom of making glad friends and little folk, will have an opportunity of being happy from the happiness of others.

Prof. J. A. Price has been forced to tender his resignation as principal of the McMinnville public schools in consequence of ill health. If his health will permit he will probably accept a similar position in the public schools at The Dalles.

We have visited the stores of our merchants and from the fine display of holiday goods, and the lively trade going on, all may be satisfied that the Christmas celebration of 1886 will be far in advance of any previous merry making heretofore held in this city.

Following is the programme for Christmas eve at the opera house: Song by the school; Recitation, Lasira Apperson; Recitation, Cynthia Fellows; Song, "Waiting for Santa Claus;" Recitation, Herbert Toney; Recitation, Helen Calbreath; Song, "Fairies;" Fairy scene; Santa Claus.

The Portland Evening Democrat, has incorporated as a stock company for $10,000 for the purpose of taking the afternoon dispatches when the Mackay-Bennett Postal Telegraph line gets through. The incorporators are Henry Fleckenstein, E. D. McKee, Sidney Dell, E. J. Jeffrey and V. K. Strode.

Bismark is fully persuaded that the signal for hostilities will begin not later than April, and that France and Germany will be the first to try conclusions at the point of the bayonet. The warlike preparations of France are being watched with the closest attention. It is generally believed here that Germany will seize any opportunity that may arise as soon as she is ready to precipitate a struggle.

The first four pages of the double edition of the Weekly Reporter for New Years day, is now in press. Besides about 20 columns of historical facts which will be a joy to all residents, we give complete in that issue one of the leading stories of the day by Miss Mulock, "The Half Caste," published for the first time west of the mountains. The Pioneers of Oregon receive special attention, and taken all in all this edition of the Reporter will be one of which all will want many copies.

Mount Hood.

Behold his glistening brow uplifted high!
Like a sail first seen upon the rolling main;
Appears his snowy head above the plain,
Growing in grandeur and in size before your eye,
Clear and distinct against the azure sky.
Beneath him lies outspread a vast domain
O'er which by nature he seemed placed to reign.
A vain procession passing ceaseless by
Look up with wondering eye at his bright face,
A moment only, seeming in his sight
They pause—then sink with the approaching night
Into oblivions tomb—race after race.
But he, despite, decay and death remains
The proud and changeless monarch of the plains.
—Charles Grisson.

New Year Edition.

The staff of the Reporter are now at work upon the great edition for New Years. Each town in the county will be visited and its past, present and future outlook given to our readers in readable form. This edition will surpass anything yet attempted by the publishers.

OUR MERCHANTS, LAWYERS, DOCTORS AND PATRONS.

Are informed that now is the opportunity to send in your orders for copies of our great edition for New Years, as this will be strictly a county paper for the benefit of the county, is expected that liberal patronage will be extended. The size of the weekly will be eight pages, eight columns to the page, just twice the present size. If you do not leave your orders now, you will not have a chance later on. The price will be single copy 10 cents, or three for 25 cents. Now is your chance to advertise old Yamhill to the world by sending to your friends in the east, an issue of this great edition.

Dime Entertainment.

The following is the programme of the entertainment to be given by the Young Peoples' Guild at the Baptist church Wednesday evening Dec. 22d. Admission 10 cts. Children free.

Overture, By the choir,
Recitation "The closing year," Miss Fannie Baxter.
Song, Merry Christmas Bell, By the children.
Reading, Christmas Snowflakes, Miss Mattie Martin.
Quartette, Mrs. J. E. Magers and Miss Mattie Martin, Messrs. A. M. Sanders and W. Gwinn.
Recitation, Pearly Campbell
Instrumental music, Mrs. G. J. Burchett.
Declamation, James Shank.
Duet, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Chandler.
Recitation, Helen Calbreath.
Recitation, Christmas is coming, Eva Baxter.
Quartette, Mrs. A. C. Chandler and Mattie Martin, Messrs. A. C. Chandler and J. R. Sanders.
Declamation, Is there no God? F. J. Martin.
Jubilee song, By the little folks.
Reading, Alta Porter.
Farmer's song, Myrtle and Robert Henderson.
Quartette, Mesdames, Campbell and Tucker, Messrs. Chandler and Magers.

STRAYED.—December 4th, from my pasture, south of this city, an iron grey and three year old gelding. A suitable reward will be paid for information that will lead to his recovery.

A. K. OLDS, McMinnville, Or.

Observations.

A Yale safe lock key found on the street, awaits an owner at this office.

All adults, but no children, will be expected to pay admission to the Christmas tree at the opera house.

1½ lbs. fresh homemade mixed candy for 25c, and better yet, if you will C. Grissen at the Bakery.

Ladies gold and silver watches at a big bargain at the McMinnville jewelry store.

Wanted old rags, old iron of all kinds, bottles of all kinds, empty coal oil cans and cases at the Central Hotel, J. Holeberg.

McMinnville jewelry store is now the biggest and largest west of Portland and the cheapest in Oregon. Wm. Holl, proprietor.

All are cordially invited to put presents on the Christmas tree for their children, parents and friends, at the opera house.

Why do you pay for inferior silver plated table ware big prices, if you get at the McMinnville jewelry store, Wm. Holl, the best and finest can be had for the same price.

Bring on your job work. We are now prepared to do job work in the latest and most approved style of the art.

The McMinnville Business College is open every evening at 7 o'clock for students in writing, drawing and book-keeping.

Can you do better than this. The Reporter weekly, and the Cottage Hearth monthly, one year, 1887, for $2.25. Call and see us.

Miss Belle Johnson, teacher of music in McMinnville and at McMinnville college. Residence corner of Second and C Streets.

The Weekly Reporter, a faithful and complete compendium of the week's news, is furnished for 12½ cents a month.

The Scientific American, is the very best publication in this country for those interested in science, engineering, mechanics, inventions, etc. A copy of the Scientific American may be seen at the office of this paper, where subscriptions will be received.

All parties knowing themselves indebted to me are requested to please come forward, shake hands, settle up old accounts, make me happy, and yourself to. I have labored for you in the past, and shall continue to do so in the future. My work always gives satisfaction. Money I must have to meet my obligations and if you want to hear me smile, just come and drop a few ducats into my out stretched palm. Respectfully yours, W. T. Booth.

AGENTS WANTED.

We want a thoroughly reliable man at every postoffice in Yamhill, Polk and Washington counties. We will make it an object for those willing to work, who can show results. Write to us for particulars. We want no duds nor tricksters to apply.

HOW TO REMIT.

Our agents are advised that we cannot pay commissions upon reduced prices. The Reporter for all of 1887 will be $1.50 (to Jan. 1, 1888), but the subscriber must remit us the full amount. Remit money by Postal Order, Registered letter or express, at our risk, but not at our expense.