D. C. IRELAND & CO. PUBLISHERS,

McMinnville, Or. - Dec. 23, 1886

Oregon City has caught bridge fever.

Yesterday afternoon was a mild, balmy sunny day.

The legislative assembly will meet at Salem on the 10th, of January.

There shall be no such word as fail in connection with the Choral Union.

J. A. C. Freund left for North Yamhill yesterday upon important business.

C. W. Talmage made the trip to Sheridan and back in a hurry yesterday p. m.

Mr. Daniels of the famous Lafayette flouring mills was in the city on business yesterday.

An exhibition by the public school at Carlton, will be given this evening, Thursday; instead of to-morrow evening.

Mrs. A. J. Apperson wants a girl to assist her in her house work. Do not wait till after the holidays; but answer now.

The next meeting of the Choral Union will be held at the parlors of Miss F. E. Russ. A full attendance is desired Tuesday evening.

Miss Sadie and Miss Ida Smith of Brownsville have taken up their residence in this city, and are engaged with Mrs. M. Shadden in dressmaking.

A business meeting of the Young Peoples Dancing club, will be held this evening at Jeff D. Fenton's office, at 7:30 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

Sign the petition. No matter how goes the vote; let us be rid of the vexed question which has too long been a soft thing for a certain class of political wire pullers.

Geo. Olds met with a serious accident on the road South-east of the city a few nights since, by upsetting his carriage. His wife lost her pocket-book, and George has been out dragging for it.

There will be an appropriate service Christmas day at St. James church, the Rev. John C. Fair officiating. Service will commence at 10 a. m. All are cordially invited to attend.

The petition to the legislative assembly concerning the relocation of the county seat in Yamhill county simply asks the privilege of submitting the question to the voters, not later than June, 1887.

Thanks are due A. J. Apperson for a bounteous lunch left at this office Tuesday evening, for the overworked printers, who had not the time to go and eat. A bottle of the "milk of human kindness" was one of the many luxuries.

A very handsome all wool cream colored dress, to be made up for $1.00, is the attraction at Mrs. Shadden's dressmaking parlors. It will be finished part with lace trimmings and valued at $50. There is to be a raffle for it, and the lucky winner will surely get a prize. Call upon Mrs Shadden for particulars today.

A Portland growl in the Telegram is thus stated: Eggs forty cents per dozen with an "upward tendency" and from three to five in the dozen rotten, and still farmers complain that there is nothing in their business in this country.

Lucy Stone says; "If underpaid sewing women will take well-paid domestic service, they will not need charity." The same may be said truthfully, as a general rule, of the underdressed mendicant. The value of domestic service and honest industry cannot be overestimated.

It is time a few new gas burners were put into the Gilman. Mrs. G. W. Davidson nearly lost her life there because her husband, in turning down the gas turned the stop-cock too far around, and did not notice the strong smell in his room before he was awakened from his stupor by the noise made at his door by Mrs. Hemphill.

The crystallization of fruits is becoming an important industry in California, and the New York trade admits that the California fruit confections are much superior in flavor to the French goods. The largest concern devoting attention to this industry is Barbour & McMurtry of San Jose, and Wm. T. Coleman & Co.

Bro. Stine says he has the names of forty persons in Brownsville, who weekly borrow the Informant from their neighbors, who are enterprising enough to take it and pay for it. And these are the very ones, too, who have no use for a paper. As a great majority of these borrowers are amply able to take the Informant, and pay for it, he can hardly refrain from putting their names in the paper.

A real estate agency at Seattle is sending out its compliments broadcast, boasting of its town and resources; but the tone of the circular is made very inharmonious by an imprint showing that the card was printed way back in the Atlantic states. A firm that is too proud to patronize its home institutions and build up the arts in its own midst as well, need to be reminded that among practical men its ostentatious displays are taken as mere vaporings which lack the test of soundness.

Uncle Sam is getting after Russia in relation to her treatment of an American citizen, expelled because he was a He brew.

The First National Bank will be closed to the public on both Christmas and New Year day.

Dr. G. H. Smith and Miss Lillie Getchill were married at Amity yesterday, Rev. E. Russ officiating.

The mud was raked up at the intersection of Third and C. streets yesterday, and good bottom found.

Yesterdays Oregonian contains another long and interesting special from Judkins, Washington city. Topics were The Dalles ship railway, Salmon fisheries, etc.

Mr. Underwood, the indefatigable supervisor of No. 45, was in the city yesterday covered with mud. Our interviewer found that it was caused by putting in corduroy on the Baker creek road where 800 feet has been laid, and 400 are to be, before the road is passable.

G company, OSM, have good reason for self congratulation on the result of the competitive drill with the Seattle boys. Not only did the Portland company secure the wreath of bays for superiority in military tactics, but they came out very satisfactorily on the question of finance. The amount realized over and above the outlay was a very neat little sum.

The Silverton Appeal referring to the hostile attitude of Portland concerning the narrow gauge railway system, says Portland is very much like many interior towns that kick against every enterprise calculated to help them, because they are not used to enterprise and can't see just how it will affect them. But when the enterprise is once inaugurated and the community begins to derive the predicted benefits, the "dog in the manger" spirit leaves them for the time until another enterprise is proposed, when the kicking process is again revived.

On the morning of December 30th, Mr. White will call upon the business houses of this city with copies of the New Year edition. Its contents cover all topics, consisting of able editorials and current events, stories by well known writers, selected poems, Yamhill county and its business interest, pioneer days, local and miscellaneous news, making it a vehicle of public information unsurpassed in the history of country journalism in the north-west. It behoves our resident citizens to take one or more extra copies, and send to friends outside of the county. The price has finally been placed at 10 cents per copy, owing to the increased cost of production, it is no boast to state that the issuing of this New Year number will cost the publishers over $300. Having had constantly employed for the past month a force of five men and two ladies.

Why do you pay for inferior silver plated table ware big prices, if you get at the McMinnville jewelry store, Wm. Holl, the best and finest can be had for the same price.

Miss Belle Johnson, teacher of music in McMinnville and at McMinnville college. Residence corner of Second and C Streets.

All parties knowing themselves indebted to me are requested to please come forward, shake hands, settle up old accounts, make me happy, and yourself to. I have labored for you in the past, and shall continue to do so in the future. My work always gives satisfaction. Money I must have to meet my obligations and if you want to hear me smile, just come and drop a few ducats into my out stretched palm. Respectfully yours, W. T. Booth.

ALL ACCOUNTS due us must be paid now, as we must settle with the machinery house below. Hurry up. BOOTH & WRIGHT, McMinnville.

STRAYED.—December 4th, from my pasture, south of this city, an iron grey three year old gelding. A suitable reward will be paid for information that will lead to his recovery. A. K. OLDS, McMinnville, Or.

Notice To My Patrons.

In consequence of declining health, which prevents me from making personal application to parties indebted, I am compelled to thus publicly say that all bills due and unsettled January 1st 1887 will be placed in other hands for collection. WM. H. BINGHAM, McMinnville, Or., Dec. 2d, 1886.
