McMinnville, Or. - Dec. 31, 1886

Wheat was 73 cents sacked yesterday.

Miss Minnie Kerney goes to Independence after the holidays.

The Lewiston jury failed to agree upon the last trial of Hibbs, this week.

We were in error. The installation of the Grange officers to-morrow will not be public.

G. E. Detmering was able to walk up to his store yesterday for the second time since Christmas.

Eugene Hannah, Esq., of Walla Walla, is spending the holidays at his old home near Carlton.

No train has got through between The Dalles and Portland since Monday. Passengers are transferred by steamers as of old.

Messrs. Wortman at the First National bank are surfeited with elegant calendars for their friends. Call and capture one.

Frank Hauswirth, one of the live and energetic citizens of North Yamhill, was in the city yesterday, and he did not fail to call.

The interior decorations of St. James church where photographed for the Rector Mr. Fair, by Price the artist. He secured a splendid negative.

The roan gelding that strayed from A. K. Olds' pasture has possibly gone over the mountains in the direction of Astoria, as he was raised in the Nehalem settlement.

Ira Hutchens, a lad of about fifteen years, lost the tips of two fingers on his right hand, in Fletcher's feed mill yesterday. The surgery was attended to by Dr. Calbreath, and the little fellow stood the operation without a whimper.

Mr. White's illness has prevented distribution of the New Year Reporter. Will all who wish it oblige us by calling at the office for them. Those ordered by mail will be sent out to-morrow, or on Monday, if possible to do so.

Messrs. Hodsons have too much to do to stand around and talk about what they are doing, but invite customers to call, and find out and see for themselves that they are selling as good goods as anybody, and at a l-e-e-t-l-e the lowest prices, for a fact.

Farmers who may wish to get rid of squirrels or gophers can do so for a very small cost by purchasing of George Hanson, at the agricultural warehouse of Barnekoff & Co., Third street, who has the sole agency for Yamhill county, for the sale of Smith's Exterminator which has only to be seen to be tried.

New Year Calls.

The following named ladies have signified their intention of receiving calls from gentlemen friends and acquaintances on New Year day:

Mrs. W. T. Booth and daughter, at home.

Mrs. Dr. Calbreath at her residence, assisted by Mrs. W. D. Fenton; from 1 p. m.

Mrs. A. L. Talmage at her home assisted by Miss Anna Turner and Miss Belle Johnson.

Mrs. E. B. Fellows and Mrs. A. J. Apperson, at the house of Mrs. Apperson, from 11 a. m.

Miss Lillie Ireland, at her home, assisted by Miss F. E. Russ, and Mrs. Geo. A. Wilcox.

Miss Mary L. Johnson, at the residence of C. D. Johnson, assisted by Miss Mary Carlin, Miss Nellie Dumphery, and Miss Ida Smith.

Miss Maggie Wright, at the residence of W. D. Wright, assisted by Miss Katie Nelson, and Miss Ellen Bangasser and Miss Sarah Osborn; from 1 p. m. till 5 o'clock.

The Inland Empire is under snow, but as the ground was not frozen it will be of immense benefit to the grass crops.

The Three Sisters gave the steamer Salem a lively chase up the river the other day, keeping ahead of her several miles, although the Salem is noted for speed. The N. S. Bentley had already lowered the time between Corvallis and Albany half an hour, before she sunk.

The woman Ida Garrard mysteriously disappeared, has returned to her home. The Oregonian intimates that there are several strange circumstances in this matter that would bear investigation, but if the twain go home and "sin no more" the public should be satisfied to let it rest.

Observations.

Ladies gold and silver watches at a big bargain at the McMinnville jewelry store.

McMinnville jewelry store is now the biggest and largest west of Portland and the cheapest in Oregon. Wm. Holl, proprietor.

Miss Belle Johnson, teacher of music in McMinnville and at McMinnville college. Residence corner of Second and C Streets.

Chas. Groening has established a wood yard in this city, and sells oak 16-inch cut at $4.00 per cord; fir four feet, $2.25, and other qualities in like proportion.

Why do you pay for inferior silver plated table ware big prices, if you get at the McMinnville jewelry store, Wm. Holl, the best and finest can be had for the same price.

Advertisements, etc., intended for publication in The Weekly Reporter must be handed in Tuesday morning. We cannot in future deviate from this rule.

MARRIED.—In Brownsville, on Christmas Day, at the residence of the brides parents Thomas Kay, by Rev. C. Sperry, O. P. Coshow, Jr., and Miss Libby Kay. We extend hearty congratulations.
