 McMinnville, Or. - JAN. 1, 1887
 Dec. 31, 1886.

Vol 2, No. 1.
 Double edition.
 A Happy New Year to all.
 No Daily Reporter will be issued from this office on Monday.
 A fifty dollar dress for a dollar is an elegant gift. At Mrs. M. Shadden's.

M. Underwood has finished his corduroy, to the satisfaction of all reasonable travelers.

Miss Margaret Thurber and Chas. Wallnace; were married by Hon. L. Loughary, at the Essex house, in Lafayette, on the 24th.

Miss May Alexander, Miss Nellie Dumphrey, Miss Fanny Musgrove, and Miss Lillie Newgard, will spend their New Year to-day in Portland.

It seems queer that whenever a noted man of politics dies in America the next thing is a subscription for the widow. Statesmen are about as poorly paid as editors after all.

The cheapest attempt to get something for nothing is now being practiced upon the verdant interior press by the most insignificant pretender, the Minneapolis fireside, an alleged paper unworthy of a capital F.

Thanks to Mrs A. J. Baker for a nice lot of choice mince meat for pies. Our fondness for mince pies may now be gratified in a manner to remind us of old times in Astoria.

Services as usual in all churches to-morrow. The subject of Rev. Mr. Hendersons morning discourse will be: "Our Work in this Community for the Coming Year." Subject for evening, "Laying the Foundation for a Pure and Noble Life."

A. M. Taggart has sold his shop and tailoring business in this city to Otho Williams, late of Dallas, who will continue at the old stand and carry out the plans of his predecessor, who has given the most perfect satisfaction to all in this town.

One of our exchanges fires a satirical shot, thusly: "We have said nothing to you about your dues during the long summer months, yet our expenses are just as heavy in summer as in winter. Now you think we are going to dun you, but you are mistaken. We only want to say to you that this is a grand and glorious country, and that we are going to "whoop'er up for all she is worth!" Also that we are trying our best to get our paper, printers, etc., without paying for them. What? dun old friends that have stuck to us through thick and thin for the last three or four years, who never 'missed a meal or paid a cent?' Not we; no, sir!"

New Year Calls.

The following named ladies have signified their intention of receiving calls from gentlemen friends and acquaintances on New Year day:

Mrs. W. T. Booth and daughter, at home.

Mrs. Dr. Calbreath at her residence, assisted by Mrs. W. D. Fenton; from 1 p. m.

Mrs. A. L. Talmage at her home assisted by Miss Anna Turner and Miss Belle Johnson.

Mrs. E. B. Fellows and Mrs. A. J. Apperson, at the house of Mrs. Apperson, from 11 a. m.

Miss Lillie Ireland, at her home, assisted by Miss F. E. Russ, and Mrs. Geo. A. Wilcox.

Miss Mary L. Johnson, at the residence of C. D. Johnson, assisted by Miss Mary Carlin, Miss Nellie Dumphery, and Miss Ida Smith.

Miss Maggie Wright, at the residence of W. D. Wright, assisted by Miss Katie Nelson, and Miss Ellen Bangasser and Miss Sarah Osborn; from 1 p. m. till 5 o'clock.

This is Jeannie Winstons last night at New Market.

The Postal Telegraph co. ask no subsidy from anybody. They do their work upon a basis of business.

Public schools will resume next Monday, under direction of Prof. Jordan. College studies resume on Tuesday.

There are over twelve hundred patents at the Oregon city land office. Parties wishing to know if their patent is among the number can estimate. Usually the patent is ready about fifteen months after the date of the final receipt.

It is expected that the railroad bridge at Albany will be completed by January 1st, ready for the passage of trains. The grading on the eastern extension is about completed to the point where the road crosses the Santiam east of Albany.

Bridge news is interesting from up the Willamette. Boats, cannot pass under the Salem bridge at the present stage of water, or near the Albany bridge without wreck, on account of the furious current. It is inconceivable how such a blunder could be made at Salem with the gauge of hight established at the canal, so long as the locks can be used no bridge should obstruct navigation farther up stream.

List of Letters.

Following is a list of letters remaining in the McMinnville post office uncalled for January 1st 1887: A. D. Boundage, Edwin Boundage, Mrs. Mary Bannette, J. E. Conner, John Davis, H. Fisher, Miss Hendershot, F. H. McGrew, H. B. Miller, Ira Miller, A. C. Snyder. Parties calling for the sum please say advertised

J. F. WISCARVER, P. M.

Observations.

Ladies gold and silver watches at a big bargain at the McMinnville jewelry store.

McMinnville jewelry store is now the biggest and largest west of Portland and the cheapest in Oregon. Wm. Holl, proprietor.

Miss Belle Johnson, teacher of music in McMinnville and at McMinnville college. Residence corner of Second and C Streets.

Chas. Groening has established a wood yard in this city, and sells oak 16-inch cut at $4.00 per cord; fir four feet, $2.25, and other qualities in like proportion.

Why do you pay for inferior silver plated table ware big prices, if you get at the McMinnville jewelry store, Wm. Holl, the best and finest can be had for the same price.

Advertisements, etc., intended for publication in The Weekly Reporter must be handed in Tuesday morning. We cannot in future deviate from this rule.

All parties knowing themselves indebted to me are requested to please come forward, shake hands, settle up old accounts, make me happy, and yourself to. I have labored for you in the past, and shall continue to do so in the future. My work always gives satisfaction. Money I must have to meet my obligations and if you want to hear me smile, just come and drop a few ducats into my out stretched palm. Respectfully yours, W. T. Booth.
