

Garrison Opera House.

This handsome temple of amusements was thrown open to the public in the fall of '85, and was dedicated with becoming ceremonies. The building is a two-story brick structure, located in the very heart of the city. Mr. Garrison spared no expense of time or money to make this edifice a popular resort with all. The first cost was $10,000, but numerous improvements have been added from time, until now it is as cosy a little theater as can be found on the coast. The seating capacity all told, will accommodate 600. The dimensions of the stage are 20x40 feet. There are 29 scenes, and the drop curtain is more than well executed. All the scenery was painted in Chicago. Every facility is offered to troupes coming this way to add a new town to their list, and one that is fully alive to the situation of securing first-class entertainments. Managers will find it to their interests to address W. J. Garrison, Esq., sole proprietor, as regards terms of engagement.

When last seen Mr. Smith's cattle, advertised in the Reporter were on the headwaters of the Nestuca. Is thought they went out through Gopher hole.
