McMinnville, Or. - - Jan. 14, 1887

Grissen made another fine lot of creams and stick candy yesterday.

Messrs. Freund and Magers have returned from Salem. Mr. Apperson may perhaps return to-day.

Hon. W. D. Fenton will open a fine suite of rooms for law offices in the Braly bank building, in apartments lately vacated by the Business college.

T. R. Bewley took his fine Holstein bull Prince, to his Sheridan ranch yesterday. Just before starting Prince was weighed. He is only about twenty months old, but tipped the beam at 1090 pounds.

Do not forget Miss Rosa Stannus at the Opera house this Friday evening. This talented lady comes among us highly recommended by the press and pulpit, and she is deserving of a crowded house.

Marple's mother is in jail for secreting stolen goods, after the fact. A lot of strychnine, enough to poison a city full of people, was among the contraband goods captured with a search warrant at the Marple mansion in Lafayette.

A canvasser for a hotel register in this city met with poor encouragement, because our advertisers know where to put their ads. to do them the most good, with a daily, weekly, and semi-weekly and a monthly, printed at home. That's the sort of stuff McMinnville is made of.

The confession of Marple as to stealing goods from a Mr. Jones at Independence, two years ago, proves to be a fact; although Mr. Jones does not live at Independence, nor never has. The stolen goods were in store there. He has been found, and visited Lafayette, where he secured most of the stolen property.

Occidental lodge No. 30, I. O. O. F. installed officers last night, P. P. Gates officiating, at Garrison Opera house. The Daughters of Rebecca also installed officers by the same installing officer. There was a merry crowd in attendance of Odd Fellows, their wives, daughters and sisters. And the evening was enjoyed in the most agreeable manner. A list of the officers installed will be published tomorrow.

The willows are in bloom over at Flint Martin's place.

Roy Wiles goes to Salem to aid the Home amusement club in an entertainment this week.

A honey bee with pollen, came into our office yesterday, just to remind us that they were at work.

Hon. J. E. Ferguson was in the city yesterday from Lafayette, and he didn't talk politics a bit. He is looking remarkably hale.

Frank Multner of the St. Charles, has leased the Central, and will move in when L. H. Cook takes leave of the premises February 1st, to open his own fine new brick hotel in this city.

The council committee on charter are persecuted with pressing inquiries. It may be enough to say perhaps, that they know what they are about and propose to be about what they know.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Otho Williams, merchant tailor, on the fourth page. Give him a trial order; he is a very energetic young man, and will no doubt give you entire satisfaction.

Sheriff Harris called yesterday. He is getting ready to go out upon a tax collecting tour. He will start on the 24th and follow up to the 8th of February, at the following places:

Dundee, Monday January 24th;
East Chehalem, Newberg, Tuesday January 25th;
West Chehalem, Carter's store, Wednesday Jan. 26th;
North Yamhill, Rumlens, Thursday Jan. 27th;
Carlton, Friday Jan. 28th;
North McMinnville, Saturday Jan. 29th;
South McMinnville, Monday Jan. 31st;
Bellevue, Tuesday February 1st;
Williamina, Wednesday Feb. 2d;
Sheridan, Thursday Feb. 3d;
Amity, R. L. Simpsons, Friday Feb. 4th;
Wheatland, Saturday Feb. 5th;
Dayton, Monday Feb. 7th;
Lafayette, Tuesday Feb. 8th.

The Tacoma News says of gene Arams' Dream, "one of the Miss Rosa Stannus: In "Eucritations rendered, her portrayal of the guilty murderer was realistic and forcible without being shammed. Her gestures, like her acting, spring from feelings within rather from mechanical study, and are therefore natural.

The question at Lafayette is: What did old Mrs. Marple propose to do with so much strychnine? Perhaps she wanted it for to cure the fits her dutiful son and daughter-in-law are reported to suffer from. Some are so uncharitable as to harbor the thought that she wanted it to make good her threats concerning "other mother's sons" in Lafayette.

Services as usual at 7 o'clock this evening at St James Episcopal church.

Miss Stannus to-night at the Opera house. Come one and all and enjoy a rich treat.

A scientific lecturer, Prof. P. A. Graves, is in the county. He took in North Yamhill the first of the week, is now at Sheridan, and proposes to pay this city a call. He places his ability high in the scale.

Wilson Carl lost, his barn yesterday morning by fire, on the Glenbrook road, together with agricultural machinery, hay, etc., aggregating a loss of about $1-200, partly covered by insurance in the Phoenix and Home, represented by C. W. Talmage.

J. M. Schrack, a new comer from Iowa, has a six months old babe which has been seriously afflicted with pneumonia, incident to a sudden change of climate, from frozen Iowa to mild Oregon, but we are pleased to hear that the little sufferer is improving.

It is three miles thirty-seven chains and sixty-three links about the proposed corporate limits of McMinnville. The enclosed area contains about five hundred acres, and one thousand three hundred as good people as can be found penned together in the same area on the Pacific coast.

The Rev. J. C. Van Patten, of Dayton, Washington territory, who had appointments to fill at the C. P. Church this week was taken very seriously ill Tuesday evening, since which time he has been compelled to keep his room at the house of Rev. T. H. Henderson. Yesterday he appeared to be getting along finely, under careful treatment of his physician.

A correspondent of the Appeal makes a good suggestion for some of our local artists: "The display of art about a week before Christmas, in the front window of Fellows' furniture establishment, by the McMinnville artists, did them credit. But none of them were of the scenery surrounding McMinnville, which would afford a fit subject for any artist. The Yamhill, to the west of the town, are very beautiful even at this time of the year, with their high peaks and sides covered with rugged timber, and the fields above the town stretch away to the hills which are overhung by the blue sky, making indeed, a pretty picture.

Observations.

A meeting of the McMinnville temperance club will be held at Grange hall Monday Jan, 18th 1887, all members, are requested to be present at 7 o'clock sharp. B. F. Fuller, president.

Dr. Taylors method of treating piles is the latest and most approved by the profession and although not entirely without pain there's no additional pain and the cure is permanent and complete. Call at Dr. Johnsons office and consult him, it will cost you nothing unless he treats you and cures you. This is no humbug.

John J. Sax has his chop mill in running order, and will chop feed for $2 per ton. If this does not suit the customer call and get a special rate.

Mrs. Breon is prepared to receive a few day boarders. Three gentlemen can be furnished with rooms. Corner of Third and H streets, last house on the right before crossing railroad track.

The best of green and roast coffee—bargains—cup and saucer separate, at C. Grissen's.

Miss Belle Johnson, teacher of music in McMinnville and at McMinnville college. Residence corner of Second and C Streets.
