

The Daily Reporter.

D. C. IRELAND & CO. PUBLISHERS.

McMinnville, Or. - - Jan. 15, 1887

Dayton is walking right ahead in the march of substantial improvement.

There is room on the top margin of the Vidette to write a swamp land decree.

Thanks to D. Stout for a fine lot of choice spare-ribs, and most excellent sausages.

The firemens festival will be held at the Opera house, Tuesday evening, February 22d.

Addie Braly is laid up with a painful cut in his foot, made by the mislick of an axe, while splitting wood.

The Reporter was serenaded yesterday by hundreds of wild canaries, while they were feeding upon the seeds of grasses in door yard.

Several of the fraternity reciprocated the visit of Thursday evening by attending the Odd Fellows ball at Lafayette last evening.

C. Symons is preparing to go into business over on Puget sound. Do you want a good home in this city, he has it for sale. See local.

Dr. H. H. Taylor, of Appleton, Mo., brother to Dr. Taylor of this city, is bringing out sixteen matched roadsters for the Los Angeles trade. He will return east via this city.

Vicks Floral Guide for 1887 is up to its former excellency, and the firm is one of the first in the United States for the sale of flower and vegetable seeds, plants, bulbs, etc.

Up to the evening of the 13th house bill No. 80, senate bill No. 53 were introduced. The senate had also put in several joint resolutions and the house was not lagging behind.

Dr. Pettigrew, of St. Louis, Mo., brother to the late Thos. has located in this city permanently. He has been here about two weeks, and is so far well pleased with this part of the world.

There will be an effort to let both the state immigration office and the state fair go by the board, but these schemes will most likely be played one against the other, and so both will carry.

The statement published a year ago in the Reporter, that a volunteer signal station could not be established at the college here, is confirmed by a letter from Senator Dolph to Prof. Crawford, en route.

A. J. Apperson returned from Salem yesterday. Things look very favorable for a business session.

Lindsey Delashmutt has sold the T. S. Patty farm of 160 acres to Mr. Green, late of Tennessee, for $1,500.

Dr. Michaux has purchased the residence property of Dr. Calbreath, and will remove to Lafayette from Sheridan.

The stranded vessel on Nes-tucca is about gone to pieces.

Jas. McPhillips says what can't be cured must be endured, but piles can be cured by Dr. Taylor, and he knows it.

Mrs. Breon is giving good satisfaction, and is receiving a liberal support at her new boarding house. Third and H streets.

Hon. J. E. Magers has set a fine example for every business house and office in the city to pattern after. Put up a letter and paper box at his door. It is hard to serve a daily paper where the boxes are not in use.

Mrs. T. E. Fristoe, mother of Mrs. C. B. Wiley, has lately returned to Sheridan and is visiting among her children. She has been east of the mountains for the last two or three years.

A bridge near Farmington, in Washington county, fell while a Mr. Miller was crossing it on the 13th. One horse was killed, the other badly injured, hack demolished and Mr. M. nearly killed. It is very doubtful if he recovers.

All members are invited to attend the Choral Union at the residence of Hon. Wm Campbell next Tuesday evening. In consequence of the inclement weather the attendance was limited in numbers last Tuesday evening, and this calls for an extra evening at Mrs. Campbell's.

In answer to the question: Does it pay to improve stock? C. A. Wallace calls our attention to a circumstance calculated to affirm the proposition that it does, he says Mr. Rhodes of this city bred a cow to Solon Prince last spring, and when the calf was two days old it would have taken $30 to buy it. Mr. Wallace heard a man say he would give that amount for it. Now what amount would be given for a common calf? You buy them eight months old for from eight to ten dollars apiece. If one properly bred is worth thirty dollars at two days of age, it appears to be a pretty straight argument in favor of the imported stock. So we think.

Odd Fellows Installation.

Following is a list of the officers installed by D. D. G. M; P. P. Gates, assisted by officers of the grand lodge at Garrison Opera house, Thursday evening.

Occidental No. 12, W. J. Loughary NG; J. E. Brooks VG; J. L. Rogers RS; E. N. Ford PS; S. A. Manning T; W. T. Booth RSNG; Wm. Holl LSNG; Chas. Daniels cond; L. H. Cook warden; W. G. Henderson RSS; Dr. A. D. Howard LSS; S. F. Harding RSVG; Lee Wright LSVG; Clark Braly IG.

Friendship No. 12, D. of R., were next installed as follows: Mrs. N. L. Cook NG; Mrs. Alice Burt VG; E. N. Ford RS; Mrs. M. Daniels PS; W. T. Booth treasurer.

In consequence of the lateness of the hour, and the tempting spread before the audience, where seventy-five covers were laid for a sumptuous repast, further installation was deferred, and the second portion of the programme was introduced, consisting of excellent music, vocal and instrumental, such as we always have when Mesdames Campbell, Tucker, Burt, et. al., and Messrs. Saunders, Ford, et. al., participate. The programme was interspersed with select and spicy recitations by little Misses Pearl Campbell, Ola Burt, Helen Calbreath, Mrs. Heinman, and last by far no means least, Miss Rosa Stannus, closing with the musical quartet "Moonlight Dance." Refreshments were next in order, and at the tables were seated the officers of the Grand Lodge and invited guests, next members of the local lodges.

We noticed members of the fraternity from various lodges of sister towns, including Messrs. P. P. Gates, Dr. Littlefield, Dist. Att'y Bradshaw, Frank O'Conner of Lafayette; Messrs. Brown, Allen and others from Amity; Messrs. Runnels, Sappington, Bedwell, RH Mesner and others, from North Yamhill, nearly all of whom were accompanied by ladies. Although the hour was late, and the night one of the most stormy of this winter, only the appearance of happiness surrounded the features of all up to the time of their departure for home.

Gen. Cris. Taylor of Dayton, has been installed G. M. of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Master Masons for the state of Oregon. J. F. Wisecarver of this city, is treasurer.

Observations.

A good stock range of 160 acres, house and barn can be bought for $500; on county road. Apply at this office. 20 cts per day

Half block of land and six room cottage with good well of water, and large and small fruit, is offered for sale on easy terms, by C. Symons. Furniture will be sold with the house or separate.

Miss Belle Johnson, teacher of music in McMinnville and at McMinnville college. Residence corner of Second and C Streets.

A meeting of the McMinnville temperance club will be held at Grange hall Monday Jan. 18th 1887, all members, are requested to be present at 7 o'clock sharp. B. F. Fuller, president.

Dr. Taylors method of treating piles is the latest and most approved by the profession and although not entirely without pain there's no additional pain and the cure is permanent and complete. Call at Dr. Johnsons office and consult him, it will cost you nothing unless he treats you and cures you. This is no humbug.

John J. Sax has his chop mill in running order, and will chop feed for $2 per ton. If this does not suit the customer call and get a special rate.

Mrs. Breon is prepared to receive a few day boarders. Three gentlemen can be furnished with rooms. Corner of Third and H streets, last house on the right before crossing railroad track.
