McMinnville, Or. - - Jan. 25, 1887

Mrs. Logan is free from debt. Yesterday began the Chinese New Year.

The fireman's fair this year will double-discount any previous fair given in this city.

Kenyon & Ray have no corner on the market, but they have a market on the corner, (Bangasser's old stand). Read the adv't.

A special meeting of the vestry of St. James (Episcopal) church will be held this evening at 8 o'clock, at Dr. Johnson's office. A full attendance is requested.

Prof. Wm. Crowhirst, as we learn from posters about the city, lectured at Grange hall last evening, and will also lecture this evening and to-morrow evening, upon temperance topics.

Business men should carefully scrutinize the Canadian notes which are offered them in trade, unless they desire to be loser by accepting them. Many of these notes are worthless or nearly so.

The friends of little Miss Helen Calbreath, who is a general favorite in this city, will be pleased to hear that she is convalescing, and will soon recover from a recent very severe attack of biliousness.

Since the sale of his Lafayette property, Dr. Calbreath has become permanently identified with this city and its prosperity. As a practioner of over twelve years standing, he is too well known to need any commendation at our hands.

Messrs. Barnekoff & Co. have just bought the last lot of wheat in their warehouse, which consisted of 11,000 bushels, belonging to Messrs. Stout, Martin and Jones. The price paid was 80 1/2 which goes the Marion county man, spoken of by the Telephone, nine cents better; and is 1 1/2 cents more than has been paid in McMinnville this year. Barnekoff & Co. are still ahead.

We always have a good word for Oregon—but we met a man who beat us. He said he never seen but one day in Yamhill county finer than last Saturday was, and that was when the snow lay all over the valley from four to eight inches deep. How was that day better than this? was answered by the positive assertion that the snow was so dry you could set it off with a match.

When you kill a quail in Oregon nowdays, call it a lark.

Baxter & Martin do considerable business with Polk county.

Mrs. Senator Voorhees was buried in Washington on the 23d.

Patti is not likely to come to Oregon. $15,000 is just $14,900 to much.

The mountains about us were all white with snow yesterday morning.

Dr. W. D. Holman, dentist of Baker city, is in this city on a visit to his parents.

The funerals of both Mr. Monroe and Mr. Cooper were attended by Mr. Fellows.

The ladies Guild of the Episcopal church, will meet to-morrow at the residence of Mrs. Gallentine.

C. D. Johnson & Force have a fine half platform hack in their shops for Henderson Bros. City stables.

Sanders was placed in the Marion county jail because it was feared that he would be lynched if he remained at Albany.

We regret to hear that D. C. Narver has decided to remove from McMinnville. He will probably have his headquarters in Portland.

A tree one hundred feet in length lodged on the Salem bridge pier, but was soon sent adrift by Bert Hatch and his little hatchet.

Oscar Cooper, son of Enoch Cooper, aged about 21 years, was buried yesterday from Hopewell church. His death was caused by consumption.

The beautiful change in the weather yesterday let up just in time to prevent water getting so high in the Wallamet as to obstruct the locks at the falls.

When you want anything done in the repairing line, that a gunsmith can do, go to W. F. Collard. He is fixed for the business in good shape, and is a fine workman.

Bro. Sutherland wishes to test a question of diet with us. That is all right. You take a mouth full of bones and call it shad, if you want to; we prefer the celery, even to its Greenleaf.

John A. Monroe, whose death noted yesterday, was born in Baltimore, August 26th, 1820. Came to Oregon in 1845, was married to Annie Kinney Feb., 1851. She died and was buried at Winnemucca. He leaves two sons and five daughters.

Geo. H. Wood left for Boston yesterday.

From and after this date G. E. Detmerings store will close at 7 p. m. sharp.

Mr. Symons will divide his property to suit purchasers. The house and a part of the block for $450, or about half the block and the house $600; or all the land and house for $800. He wishes to close out in a few days.

R. W. Phillips brought news to town yesterday that three men, a Mr. Day and two others, names unknown, were upset in the south Yamhill, between the bridge and Mr. Piettes corner, but were safe in the trees awaiting help to rescue them from their perilous condition.

Gov. Pennoyer thinks the supercedure of Maj. Jones by Capt. Powell was caused by the fact that the war department does not approve of Maj. Jones' scheme of a boat railway at The Dalles. This should be ascertained. If the war department will not approve of a boat railroad, then all of senator's efforts in that behalf may be unavailing.

Senator Mitchell is now engaged in the preparation of a somewhat elaborate report on transportation routes to the sea board in favor of the construction of a boat-railway around the Dalles. In his judgment that is the plan by all means that should be adopted for the purpose of overcoming these obstructions. A canal and locks of course would be better, but we want some relief of the present generation.

Baker county is so overrun with rabbits that the nuisance is unbearable. So W. L. Geary & Co., of Ontario, propose to kill off the rabbits by wholesale and ship them east. They have secured the very low rate of transportation over the UPR to Chicago, and will, if the scheme succeeds, ship two car loads weekly of 9,000 rabbits per car, for the next three months. This will be a God-send for the poor of the eastern cities, who, for two-bits can have a big rabbit dinner, and it ought to succeed. The firm pay hunters four cents apiece and ship in refrigerator cars.

Observations.

Miss Belle Johnson, teacher of music in McMinnville and at McMinnville college. Residence corner of Second and C Streets.

John J. Sax has his chop mill in running order, and will chop feed for $2 per ton. If this does not suit the customer call and get a special rate.
