

The Daily Reporter.

D. C. IRELAND & CO. PUBLISHERS.

McMinnville, Or. - Jan. 29, 1887

A large lot of Dennison's shipping tags just received.

Alice Oates is dead, and the stage loses an illustrious star.

Coffee is high, but C. Grissen still offers bargains in green and roasted coffee.

The Dundee hotel is well kept by Mrs. Robertson. Meals, 50 cents.

Mr. Shiply says that logs enough are on hand to start the mill by the middle of next week.

The Prohibition Star under its new management shows decided improvement. Success to it.

Don't pay $25 for Chambers' Encyclopedia when you can get the same kind of Geo. W. Burt for $15.

Miss Cleveland says people partake of the nature of the food they eat. What piles of veal the dudes must consume.

Miss Hembree has an oil painting on exhibition at Rogers & Todd's drug store, that presents a very fine effect.

Wm. Gilson came out from the Tillamook mines, reaching his home in company with Mr. Chapman, on Tuesday night, after two days hard traveling.

Mr. Gardner, agent of the narrow gauge at Lafayette, is an old pioneer. Years ago he carried the mail from the Columbia river to Olympia, over a trail.

A family up in the mountains is in need of shoes and clothing for the mother and children. If some of our charitably disposed people will make a package, we will endeavor to send it in to them next week.

Mr. Gould, of the narrow gauge, placed his palace car at the disposal of the editor of the Reporter last Wednesday, and made the trip a very pleasant one from Whites to Dundee, in spite of wind and weather.

The man who swore off from borrowing umbrellas or from painting the town red and from reading papers for which he has not subscribed or paid, has a big future before him if the angels only get to hear how good he is.

Revival meetings will continue at Baptist church next Sabbath at 11 o'clock. There will be baptism at the close of morning sermon, and the inquiry meeting at the close of evening service. G. J. BURCHETT.

It is reported the narrow gauge will tap McMinnville.

An elegant assortment of calling cards just received per Friday's freight. Come and see them.

Smallpox has got a foothold in the tenement districts, and fears are entertained that it will become epidemic.

"This is a hard winter on fences," remarks an agricultural contemporary. We have noticed it has been exceptionally severe on senators' "fences."

P. N. Nystrom will lecture at the Christian church, Sunday Jan. 30th, at 11 a. m. and at 7 p. m. Subject in the morning: "What has Religion done for Man." Subject for evening: "Causes and Effects of the laws of Nature and Revelation."

Chief Engineer Henderson requests us to state that on February first a firemen's election will be held to elect a chief engineer, one assistant, a secretary and treasurer. Immediately afterwards the various companies will elect local officers. On the same evening a supper will be tendered the department.

Just received the largest and finest assortment of printer's stationary ever brought to McMinnville. Our Mr. Ireland is laying in articles that will go like hot cakes, and as we pay for what we get, and buy in large invoices, we can beat any printing establishment in the country for fine work at reasonable figures.

San Francisco papers report a peculiar divorce case. It appears that a wife in Oakland wanted a divorce because her husband was given to fishing, was so good natured that he refused to complain when he was allowed to eat a cold supper, and was so mean that he wouldn't go to church lest he would have to put something in the contribution box. It was also proved that he had a hearty dislike for his wife's relatives. Who can refuse to believe in total depravity after inspecting this sample?

Observations.

Miss Belle Johnson, teacher of music in McMinnville and at McMinnville college. Residence corner of Second and C Streets.

John J. Sax has his chop mill in running order, and will chop feed for $2 per ton. If this does not suit the customer call and get a special rate.

Bring on your job work. We are now prepared to do job work in the latest and most approved style of the art.

State Temperance Alliance Call.

The sixteenth annual session of the Oregon State Temperance Alliance will convene in Salem, Oregon, on Wednesday, February 16th, 1887, at 2 o'clock p. m. Each organized county alliance is entitled to twice as many delegates as there are members of the legislative assembly from that county. Also each church, Sunday school and temperance society is entitled to one delegate. Much depends upon this session of the alliance. The temperance forces of our state are on the eve of a great victory, or terrible defeat. The part each temperance and religious body takes in supporting and making the state alliance a success, will have much to do in determining which it shall be. Then let there be a strong delegation from all parts of the state at this session of the alliance.

Greatly reduced rates of fare will be granted to all delegates in attendance by the different lines of travel within the state.

G. M. MILLER,
H. S. STRANGE, President.
Secretary.
