McMinnville, Or. - - Feb. 5, 1887

Don't forget the auction sale at the St. Charles hotel Monday.

The broom drill will be one of the finest features of the fair.

Holy Communion at St. James (Episcopal) church to-morrow at 11 a. m. service.

Zephyrs at Mrs. Stuarts, five ounces for 25 cents. Opposite the Grange store.

Valentines in great variety, and some of the handsomest designs, at Rogers & Todds.

Mrs. J. Hoskins of Newberg, is quite ill. Her brother, A. H. Hodson, has been called to visit her.

The young folks of this city are having splendid times, in spite of cold weather and chilblains.

Grissen and Fellows are filling up their ice houses with large pure crystal blocks five inches thick.

A complete surprise party was given to Miss Mary Johnson last evening. About 20 young people were present.

A bean guesser is wanted at R. B. Hibbs' tailor shop. Three first prizes are a $50 suit, $25 coat and vest, and $10 pair of pants.

Judge Harding made a couple happy on the 1st, at the residence of Geo. Gilson, when he united Ada Jones and N. M. Chapin in the holy bands of wedlock.

Mrs. Antrim, living near Wheatland, was stricken with paralysis yesterday. Her children, in attendance at the college were summoned home last night in consequence.

C. P. church, services at the usual hours Sunday next. Subject for forenoon: "Why there is more joy in Heaven over one sinner that repents than over Ninety and nine just persons that need no Repentance." Subject for evening: "Some names of Christ, or what's in a name."

T. H. HENDERSON, Pastor.

There is nothing to be found in athletic sports that will describe the antics of the Register man when he attempts to get away from the imaginary red-hot poker which he suspects every resident of this city carries about for the purpose of stirring up bile on Lafayette topics.

Skating is fine on the Saxe lake.

Board of trade meeting Monday evening.

R. B. Hibbs will carry the goods, not samples.

Jones Howell's new banjo is the boss music box.

The McMinnville charter bill has passed the senate.

W. H. Bingham has fixed up a fine cosey office next to his store.

Astorians are having the jolliest times they ever knew coasting these days, and sleighing.

F. Multner is now well fixed in his new hotel, at the depot, the Central, and invites the public to give him a call.

Mr. Apperson, just from Salem, assures us there is no doubt whatever but that house bill No. 18 will pass the senate.

The view of the hills, from the observatory at Cooks Hotel, is rarely beautiful, clothed as they are in their winter robes.

Rev. J. Bowersox dedicated the Evangelical church at Newburg, on Sunday. The building cost $1,000 and is a neat structure.

February is rather late for a freeze up and a blockade, but if Miss Chinook does not come buzzing along soon, that will be what's the matter.

C. Symons will be glad to dispose of his furniture in lots to suit purchasers. Call at his house on Monday and take a look at what he has got for sale.

This is the first of a new song dedicated to the boneboilers of Lafayette:

Coon has a bushy tail,
'Pos'um's tail am bar',
Rabbit has no tail at all
But a little bunch of ha'r.

The first $5.00 expended for goods at R. B. Hibbs' tailor shop secures one guess at the bean jar; and for every dollar over five an additional guess, till the 1000 guesses are made up.

A telegram should go quicker from here to New York in cold weather, because by contraction the wire is just 120 miles shorter. The price does not contract. The mercury never gets low enough to affect it.

What apology has Mr. Weatherford for offering such absurd amendment to the ORN lease bill. It was promptly voted down. The bill now stands ready for third reading in the senate Monday. In the house it may be loaded to death with amendments.

Mr. Klouchek says he will take frosted apples, and so here is a chance for farmers to save themselves. Bring them in before they thaw out, and get your money.

The icicles in fragile form and glittering in the sun's rays hung pendant from eaves and awning all over the city yesterday afternoon. An icicle is a plant that lives in winter, dies in spring, and grows with its roots upward.

Observations.

Bring on your job work. We are now prepared to do job work in the latest and most approved style of the art.
