DRAMATIC AND MUSICAL.

Dudley-Bigger--A Fine Entertainment at Garrison Opera House. Tuesday Evening, Feb. 10th.

The Musical and Dramatic recital of Charles Dudley, the distinguished reader, and Miss Laura Biggar, prima donna soprano, at Garrison Opera-house Thursday night will, without doubt, be one of the most complete affairs of the kind ever given in this city. Miss Biggar is a most beautiful and charming prima donna. The New Northwest says: "She has a pure, sweet soprano voice, of good cultivation and under excellent control, and her presence is also very pleasing." The Oregonian says: "Not for a long time has a stranger made a better impression on a Portland audience." The Evening Democrat says: "At the concert at Masonic temple last night Miss Biggar proved herself to be a skillful vocalist, and was warmly welcomed." A Salem cotemporary referring to her appearance at the capital says: "She has a fine, expressive clear, cut face, lovely eyes, and hair like golden jasmine, a lithe, graceful figure, and a charming presence. Dressed in exquisite taste, her appearance made an ensemble that was extremely attractive. Her greatest charm is the perfect naturalness of her manner, and a certain facility for immediately ingratiating herself with an audience, which is very much in her favor." Box sheet open now at Rogers & Todd's.

McMinnville has perhaps the youngest Chief Engineer of any fire department on the coast, but he is a solid worker. Should a fire breakout in the city it would find the department ready to cope with it. There should be at least 500 feet of new hose added to equipments.

Mr. Wright of the committee informs us that the ladies coffee brigade will give a prize for the best conundrum at the firemens fair. Each person will be confined to one conundrum, and the name must accompany each. Hand them in to Mrs. A. J. Apperson, on or before the 19th. They need not be original.
