CITY.

Box sheet now open, for tomorrow night, at the Opera-house.

Choral union will meet for rehearsal at Mrs. A. J. Appersons, Saturday evening.

Snow shovelers were very active upon roofs of brick buildings along Third street to-day.

Uncle Ab. Faulconer, of Sheridan is in the city, paying a visit to the family of Al. Hussey.

Miss Martin's classes will have their exercises in the public school this week, Friday p. m.

The only mode of traveling to town, from the farms of Yamhill county this week, until to-day, was by sleighs.

Senator J. W. Watts has favored us with a copy of his bill No. 7, a substitute for senate bill 60, referred to elsewhere to-day.

Miss Green has been spending the winter with her sister Mrs. Gunning, near Bellevue. She is at present a guest of Miss Flora Russ in this city.

Is it any wonder that capitalists look for exempted water bonds as an investment in Oregon, when a company like the Dennison mills, of Maine, can be wrecked and ruined by striking workers.

Fletcher Bros. feed chopping mill is giving perfect satisfaction to all who have tried it. A man don't have to stay all day for his grist, and the sacks go home filled fuller than when they came. Always bring extra sacks with you.

Monday morning Gov. Penoyer while on his way to Salem reached the Stark street ferry at the same time the Salvation army did, also on the way to Salem, with drums, trumpets, and banners. Outsiders noticed the combination and remarked that the governor had been redeemed at last.

Wm. Ball, of North Yamhill, called yesterday. Mr. Ball is one of the parties held with Capt. W. S. Powell and H. M. Daniel in the United States circuit on charges which we cannot believe valid, for cutting timber on government land. They are responsible gentlemen and directors of the North Yamhill Lumbering company.

Dudley-Bigger at the Opera-house to-morrow evening.

Dr. I. C. Taylor left for Corvallis at 10:13 this a. m., professionally; expecting to return to-morrow.

The sleighing Monday night was made slick by parties who carried along a supply of oil for the runners.

Custer Post G. A. R. will meet at Grange hall, McMinnville, at 1 p. m. next Saturday, Feb. 12th. A full attendance is desired. T. H. Henderson, Post commander.

If you want your piles cured and are willing to pay for it, call at the office of Dr. Johnson, on C street. I am not working for fun, or for glory, but for money. No charge for consultation. I. C. Taylor, M. D.

Writing taught at the McMinnville Business college per month, $3. Twelve lessons $2, with time till March 12th to complete the same. This offer is open for this week only. For further particulars call at the college between the hour of five and six p. m. Opera house building.

The reported murder of a Mr Singleton, at Willamina yesterday by a man named Gunn, was one of those provoking things which run a reporter out of wind to find there is only a flimsy pretext for the yarn. In this case the facts, about as far as can be learned are that a man named Bangs, therefore Gunn; as a gun bangs when it goes off; had an altercation with another man and hit him a lick with a single-tree, ergo Singleton. We did not learn the name of the person struck.

The people of Washington territory have a vivid remembrance of a bill conferring the right of suffrage upon the women of that territory having been signed, amid general acclaim, by Gov. Newell, with a gold pen presented to him for that purpose by ardent woman suffragists. They are therefore at a loss to know why his honor Judge Langford, after, as he claims, patient and long search, is unable to discover the governor's signature to this bill.

Garrison Opera House.

The Musical and Dramatic recital of Charles Dudley, the distinguished reader, and Miss Laura Biggar, prima donna soprano, at Garrison Opera-house Thursday night will, without doubt, be one of the most complete affairs of the kind ever given in this city. Miss Biggar is a most beautiful and charming prima donna. The New Northwest says: "She has a pure, sweet soprano voice, of good cultivation and under excellent control, and her presence is also very pleasing." The Oregonian says: "Not for a long time has a stranger made a better impression on a Portland audience." The Evening Democrat says: "At the concert at Masonic temple last night Miss Biggar proved herself to be a skillful vocalist, and was warmly welcomed." A Salem cotemporary referring to her appearance at the capital says: "She has a fine, expressive, clear cut face, lovely eyes, and hair like golden jasmine, a lithe, graceful figure, and a charming presence. Dressed in exquisite taste, her appearance made an ensemble that was extremely attractive. Her greatest charm is the perfect naturalness of her manner, and a certain facility for immediately ingratiating herself with an audience, which is very much in her favor." Box sheet open now at Rogers & Todd's.

Strayed Away

A two-year-old heifer the coming spring, pretty much red on head and neck, and more or less red on body, while the hind parts are generally white a streak of white runs through the face ending in a little red spot on the nose, also an under bit on right ear. Said animal has not been seen since last June. Any one furnishing particulars as to the whereabouts of this animal will be suitably rewarded. Address Mr. Carlsen, McMinnville.

Observations.

Advertisements, etc., intended for publication in The Weekly Reporter must be handed in Tuesday morning. We cannot in future deviate from this rule.
