Keep your "piles" and keep your money, if you wish that is one of the blessings we enjoy under the government in which we live.

We regret that we cannot supply further orders for the New Year edition of the Reporter. The entire edition has been disposed of.

J. W. Briedwell of Amity was on business in Portland last Thursday, but the folks at home didn't forget that it was the 56th anniversary of his birth.

The pioneers of Oregon will hold their annual meeting in Portland next June. Uncle Jephtha Garrison has been chosen as one of the standard bearers, and Jos. Wall is president of the association.

Services at St. James church Ash Wednesday 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. and on Thursday Meditation at 4 p. m. Confirmation lecture at 7:30 p. m. Friday. Cards for all lenten services may be had from the Rector, Rev. John C. Fair, or any member of the vestry.

Every man, woman and child in this city ought to attend, and pay their way to the firemen's fair. Without the firemen we would be left worse than we have been by the disbanding of Custer Post band. The lack of public enterprise let the band out; do not repeat and repent afterwards. The fire boys save us thousands every year in insurance alone.

Let none forget the firemen this week.

G. J. Burchett goes to Amity to aid Rev. E. Russ in meetings.

Read the new ad. of Ernest Bollock, who has just opened a jewelry store on Third street.

"Washington Rhetorical Exercises" will be held in Mrs. Matthieu's room at the Public school to-morrow at 10:30, A. M. All are cordially invited to attend.

A letter from Bishop Morris states that he would probably make a short trip down through North Carolina in the hope of benefiting his health. He is expected to return to his home about the last of March.

We are pleased to see that both Oregon and Washington territory will be represented at the National drill in Washington city next May. The former by Co. G, O. S. M. (inf'y), Capt. W. L. Dudley, Portland. And the latter by the Seattle Rifles, Capt. Jos. Greene.

The wholesale attacks made by the government, through a horde of underling informers, against men of undoubted integrity, upon charges of frauds, by cutting timber from public land is not very satisfactory as an evidence that such agents are faithful servants of the public. There are two sides to this matter, and so far as these prosecutions have yet extended to Yamhill county we justly consider that the whole proceeding is shamefully lacking of justice.

He had too much brains,

We are sorry to say;

But he couldn't help it,

For he ain't built that way.

McMinnville College Notes.

We notice two new students; viz, George Clark and—Tap.

Mr. Chas. Brown, a former student of the college, visited the school last week.

Collegeside has been very quiet during the passed week, hence, news is very scarce.

Dr. Anderson organized, last week, a class in English literature: Prof. Crawford, a class in geometry.

The inclinations of approaching spring, remind the boys of base balls and bats. It is expected that the college will have a good club, as there is excellent material out of which a team can be organized.

The new officers, of the society were installed last Saturday evening. The question debated was "Resolved that the U. S. ought, at all times, to keep an efficient and well equipped navy." The question was decided in favor of the affirmative. TOM BERCHT.

Washington's birthday will be suitably observed in this city to-morrow, at the public school at 10 a. m., and by the firemen on parade in the p. m., and at the opening of the annual fair in the evening.

Washington territory has had some difficulty in establishing the identity of the persons named by President Cleveland as supreme judges. Diligent inquiry found one of these individuals in Portland and the Iowa State Register finds the other for the people by stating in a dispatch to the Post-Intelligencer that he is one Frank Allyn, a lawyer of Keokuk, but little known in Iowa. He was appointed to please Congressman Ben Hall.

Mrs. Geo. A. Wilcox attended the sad funeral of Wm. A. Basket while in Polk county last week. It was one of the most touching and sorrowful events that has ever occurred in Polk county. Mr. Basket was but recently married, and at the time the messenger of death summoned him to go was preparing to attend the wedding of his sister. Mr. Basket was well known and liked by all. His death resulted from a severe cold, settling upon his brain.
