CITY.

Let none forget the firemen this week.

Who were elected officers at the O. T. M. last night?

The ladies Guild will meet at Mrs. Detmerings this week Wednesday.

Chris. Wortman came up from Portland last evening, returning this p. m.

The cold snap has placed $10,000 dollars worth of ice in The Dalles ice houses.

Dr. Taylor goes to Corvallis on Wednesday and Thursday of each week to attend cases he is treating there.

Mrs. Capt. Bell was visiting her old time Oregon city friends here to-day. She was the guest of Mrs. Fellows.

Uncle Jephtha had a fine display of wholesome meats yesterday. In fact he has them nearly every day at the Eurisko.

We are informed that the Choral Union meet this Tuesday p. m. at 4 o'clock for final rehearsal at the Opera house.

Keep your "piles" and keep your money, if you wish; that is one of the blessings we enjoy under the government in which we live.

We regret that we cannot supply further orders for the New Year edition of the Reporter. The entire edition has been disposed of.

Frank Bros., are making A. J. Smith's combination gang plows, at Rock Island, Ill., and the factory is behind with orders all the time. This is a Yamhill patent plow.

Hodsons are getting up an elegant bronze iron sign for the new Cook Hotel. It is in the form of an arch, five feet by ten, with large letters cook raised in the center.

J. L. Adams has become interested in the Silverton Appeal with H. G. Guild. He has the reputation of being an excellent business man. As an editor H. G. has few equals.

We are more than pleased to hear from our old time friend Hon. Chas. Lafollett that he is improving most excellently in health, and expects to be home in five or six days.

The national militia bill became a law.

Call at Collards and see our gun. It is for sale; but if you can't stand the expense buy a better one from Collard.

Jeff D. Fenton has fitted up on elegant office in the Braly block where he may now be found ready to attend to all calls for surveying, etc. Entrance south of Yamhill county bank, on C street.

J. O. Rogers has a fine model of his patent device for instantaneously lessening the number of teeth in the concave of a threshing machine. Threshers will note its utility at a glance. It is his fortune.

Dan Holman has one of the fence machines sold by C. O. Burgess for $10. Ask him how much he expects to save in one seasons fencing. So long as farmers must fence they should have this machine.

J. D. Montheon lost his left eye by an accident at North Yamhill, while corralling horses on Sunday. He was attended by Dr. Haynes. The accident happened by his riding against a rail sticking out from a fence.

Two of the finest pigs ever slaughtered in Yamhill county were served at the City market to-day. They were Chester whites, ten months old, bred by C. A. Sweet, and weighed 320 lbs. The heaviest one weighed 182 lbs. dressed.

The public school exercises to-day were worthy of the occasion. Mrs. Loughary, Hon. Wm. Galloway, Hon. J. E. Magers, Mr. Baxter and others, made brief addresses, at the close of interesting exercises by the children.

We are glad to know that none of the dealers of this city here now intend to ever quit business in McMinnville. Del-schneider has ordered a heavy stock for spring, and Redmond is getting ready for the largest and best stock he ever handled.

A gentleman walking up Third street yesterday, discovered a five dollar piece in his pocket. He turned and went into Bishop & Kays, where he purchased a fine lot of toilet goods, and while in the store found out that overcoats were going off at cost this week.

Boys, quit sending those valentines. It is against the law to send obscene matter through the mails. You may get yourself into trouble.

Some miserable thief stole an overcoat from Edward Weston while he was attending church last Wednesday. Also a bridle from Bent Coulter.

The sociable at Hon. T. B. Hendersons, was a grand success, there being twenty-eight of the young folks present, who enjoyed themselves in music and general mirth making.

Many horses sick in this locality this winter. Mr. Wiggins has lost six head of good work horses, and McKinney five. J. L. Ladd while coming to church Sunday, had one drop dead while he was riding him.

Those young men who tied the cord across the bridge to throw people down, are known and had as well behave themselves, or they will have to suffer the consequences. SANDY.

He had too much brains,

We are sorry to say;

But he couldn't help it,

For he ain't built that way.
