CITY.

How does this snow storm suit you?

A lady's legging was left at the Opera house.

Singular as it seems Spencer only won one prize last night.

Grand Master Stroud has just paid the Masonic fraternity an official visit.

The receipts at the fair last night run up to $137.87, aggregating $211.72.

Capt. Ed. Fellows can take a gold ten dollar piece in his hands and twist it into a corkscrew.

Mrs. J. B. Gardner has been quite sick. She has been confined to her room for some time past.

Miss Edith Martin took first prize in crayon painting, and Mr. Higgins took second prize, last evening.

Dr. Taylor goes to Corvallis on Wednesday and Thursday of each week to attend cases he is treating there.

John Farrer is the lucky man of the city now at a raffle. He had to get a dray to haul his prizes away from the Opera house this forenoon.

Mrs. Jos. Hoskins was so much worse that Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hodson were yesterday again summoned to her bed side at Newberg by telegraph.

The board of trade have appointed Messrs. W. D. Fenton, Geo. W. Jones, and Alex Reid committee to open negotiations for another railway into McMinnville.

The committee of the board of trade having roads and highways in hand, were instructed to take steps to secure needed improvement of certain highways leading into this city.

The girls who are wearing birds' wings upon their hats should consider that they may thereby be endangered the chances of their wearing angels' wings in the "sweet by and by."

A gentleman walking up Third street yesterday, discovered a five dollar piece in his pocket. He turned and went into Bishop & Kays, where he purchased a fine lot of toilet goods, and while in the store found out that overcoats were going off at cost this week.

Last night of the fair at Opera house.

Broom Brigade to-night at the Opera house.

W. H. Bingham and wife were expected home to-day from Salem.

The Jubilee singers again this evening. Entire change of programme.

Subject at Baptist church next Sabbath evening will be, Inspiration of the Bible.

Four feet seven inches of snow at Henry Dunzers camp yesterday, with a possible doublet this a. m.

A letter addressed to a party in Father, Mich., was sent to a postoffice expert, and he forwarded it to Paw Paw. He guessed right.

The guess cake was won by two men, S. P. M. Briggs and John Todd. It weighed 3½ lbs. Briggs went an ounce over it, and Todd an ounce under. They are both expert guessers, and split the difference by cutting the cake.

Following is a list of officers chosen for the term by open temperance society. Dr. Young, president; Revs. Burchett, Hunsaker and Henderson vice presidents; Mrs. E. V. Vanatta, secretary; Mrs. B. F. Fuller treasurer.

The Choral Union was roundly called for after the first piece, but did not respond, in consequence of the length of the programme. "Star of Descending Night," was most excellently rendered. The Union is forever a fixture hereafter in the hearts of the citizens of McMinnville.

The Broom Brigade captivated the hearts of that great throng which packed the Opera house full last night, and there was not an enemy in sight to shoot at, when the command was given to "fire!" The ladies were tastefully uniformed, and made a very handsome appearance.

The finder of a double duple time keeper, lost in the cottonfield at Garrison Opera house Tuesday, will be suitably rewarded on returning same to Linc. Gortner. He doesn't think any of those darkeys would steal, ever a green watermelon; but the watch is gone, nobody knows where.

Keep your "piles" and keep your money, if you wish; that is one of the blessings we enjoy under the government in which we live.

Miss Mertie Apperson took first prize in Kensington painting, and Mrs. Hartman second prize. The work was very handsome.

There is now no obstacle in the way of the narrow guage road into Portland. House bill No. 198 has been signed by the governor.

Custer Post band resuscitated for the fair was welcomed heartily. We are glad to learn that there is a good prospect for its permanent reorganization.

We've sworn off forever from gambling. Can never again be lured to put up hard earned coin in the delusive hope of obtaining five dollars for a nickel.

"A sure cure for a felon, is to hold the afflicted finger in a cat's ear for fifteen minutes. That is all right, but who is going to hold the cat? We merely ask for information."

Services at St. James church Ash Wednesday 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. and on Thursday Meditation at 4 p. m. Confirmation lecture at 7:30 p. m. Friday. Cards for all lenten services may be had from the Rector, Rev. John C. Fair, or any member of the vestry.

Dissolution of Partnership.

The partnership formerly existing between A. L. Mills & W. A. Howe under the name of Mills & Howe has this day been dissolved. The business will be continued by W. A. Howe to whom all payments due Mills & Howe and all claims against the old firm should be presented. North Yamhill Feb. 15, '87. 51.5t

He had too much brains,
We are sorry to say;
But he couldn't help it,
For he ain't built that way.
