Look out for Booth & Fords new ad. Monday. They mean Business, with a big B. this year.

The Oregonian has come around to our way of thinking in the matter of the inter-state commerce bill.

Little Miss Lulu Wilcox spent her fourth birth day anniversary with her Grandma Hanna at Carlton, yesterday.

The peach and quince crop in the neighborhood of Milwaukie, Or., are a total loss. Other fruits do not appear to be damaged much, as yet.

Redmonds new stock was opened to the public to-day. It is a fine large stock, well selected, and will pay you to call and inspect the same before making purchases.

Milton Baker, of Dayton, W. T. and Mrs. Dr. Boyd of Goldendale, son and daughter of uncle John Baker deceased, will probably arrive here this evening, to be present at the funeral which will take place to-morrow.

Mr. E. C. Jorgenson, of Marx & Jorgenson, at present in Eastern Oregon and Washington, will start for Europe from Sprague about the 12th inst., being joined at that point by his wife and Miss Annie Henrichsen. The party will be absent several months.

Monday morning, at 8 o'clock, two energetic commercial travelers, George H. Boyden and James F. Sloane, risked their lives by crossing the Columbia at Grants on the ice. Returning from Goldendale a few hours after, they re-crossed in a skiff, the ice bridge having moved away leaving the river clear.

Burial of John G. Baker.

Uncle John G. Baker's remains will be conveyed to the grave from his house to-morrow afternoon. The committee of arrangements inform us that the funeral procession will leave the house of deceased at one o'clock p. m. and proceed to the Masonic burial grounds, where remarks appropriate to the life and character of deceased will be made by Rev. Mr. Henderson. The pall bearers will be of his associates of 1843. All are cordially invited to turn out, and pay their last sad rites to the memory of a just and generous citizen, whose death is regretted by a very large circle of acquaintances. "None knew him but to love him."

Important to Farmers.

We wish to call attention to the announcement of Messrs. Barnekoff & Thomason, and Swanson, which will appear in our issue of next week. These gentlemen have established at McMinnville, McMinnville crossing, and Carlton, commodious ware houses, complete with latest improved machinery for the proper handling of grain, and offer the farmers of Yamhill county the very best facilities for storage and cleaning of their grain. Years of experience and a practical knowledge of the business enable them to guarantee satisfaction. They also pay the highest cash price for grain of all kinds, and carry in stock a full line of the very best machinery, wagons, & etc. It will be to the advantage of all farmers to call and see them before making any other arrangements for disposing of their grain or buying their machinery or wagons. By courteous and honorable dealing, and strict attention to the best interests of their patrons, Messrs. Barnekoff, Thomason & Swanson will seek to hold the foremost position among the business firms of Yamhill county, and we bespeak for them the success which must attend their efforts. Call and see them.

Emma Heath.

The Emma Heath Dramatic Company gave proof last night of their ability to please a refined and appreciative audience, by the rendition of Kathleen Mavourneen, in superior style. Miss Heath has much more than ordinary dramatic ability, in fact might be classed among the leading artists of the west, and would captivate in much larger cities than this. To-night they will reproduce the Child of the Regiment, one of the finest pieces on the American stage. Miss Heath has very excellent support, and we should be greatly pleased to note a house filled upon this her last appearance at Garrison Opera house. Fill every seat, and the gallery.

Reserved seats 75 cts., on sale at Rogers & Todd's drug store. General admission 50 cents.

From the Financial Center.

I have suffered from catarrh and bronchitis for ten years. I used almost every kind of medicine that promised a cure, but without any permanent result for good. Disappointed and discouraged, and almost without hope, at the suggestion of a friend, I commenced the use of Swift's Specific some three or four months ago. I am delighted to say I am entirely cured. I write this that others may be benefited by my experience, for I have excellent health, and have gained twelve pounds since I began the use of Swift's Specific. F. BABCOCK MILLER, New York, Oct. 28, 1886. No. 6 Wall Street.
