CITY.

Jubilee singers, Do not forget them, Garrison Opera house to-night. Judge Loughary was in the city Saturday.

The Emma Heath company play at Albany this evening.

Miss Hepburn will leave here for New York on Saturday next.

Mexican veterans will find the pension bill at the office of J. E. Magers.

Choral Union will meet at John S. Martin's residence tomorrow evening.

Rev. John C. Fair's evening lectures, at St. James church, are very instructive.

Chinook salmon is retailing in this market for 12½ cents per pound, and it is fine.

St. James Guild will meet at the house of Rev. John C. Fair this week, Wednesday.

J. Harv. Henderson becomes an occupant of the house occupied by Luther Shobe.

Rev. Mr. Smith has been engaged by the Christians of this city for the ensuing year.

H. L. Jones has an eleven months old Jersey cow which gives two gallons of rich milk daily.

As fine ash furniture as was ever made, is now turned out at Bingham's, from Yamhill county lumber.

Booth and Wright still have on hand THREE BUGGIES of the Stayer & Walker stock, for sale cheap for cash.

Uncle J. R. Caldwell, of Carlton, one of the leading and pioneer citizens of our neighboring town, was in the city Saturday and paid us a very welcome visit.

Franklin Stout, of Carlton, W. F. Coulter of Amity, and Samuel Hobson of East Chehalis, are upon the venire from which the United States grand jury is to be drawn.

Some farmers threatened to plow yesterday, to make up for time, as the ground was in fine condition Saturday. But they didn't, as it rained nearly all night Saturday and most of the time yesterday, again making it too wet. Tile your land gents; then you can plow every day in the year nearly, if you want to.

Open temperance meeting Monday evening next.

Mr. Bynum and Mr. Barnum are both very sick. Dr. Goucher attends the former, and Dr. Johnson the latter.

Services this week at St. James church Tuesday a. m., Wednesday evening, Thursday p. m., and Friday evening. Consult your cards.

We are glad indeed to note the fact that Mrs. Lawrence is recovering quite satisfactorily from the effects of the fall which she received last winter.

Mrs. Ira Russ returned from the state Sunday school convention at Salem, via. this city, and after a pleasant visit with Rev. and Mrs. E. Russ, proceeded to Portland Friday.

Ladies, call upon Miss F. E. Russ and inspect the first invoice of new hats and ornaments just received. We cannot possibly describe them, they must be seen to be appreciated.

Mrs. E. X. Harding of Rickreal is in the city, visiting. We are pleased to hear that their Polk county home is a pleasant one, and that Mr. H. is succeeding admirably in his school. She expects to return Thursday.

Mrs. Mary Walker, of Panther creek, died suddenly from hemorrhage of the lungs, Saturday evening, aged 57 years. At her special request the body will be kept three days before burial. The funeral takes place Wednesday, and the remains will be interred in Stouts cemetery.

There is a strong probability that Hon. J. E. Magers will be indicted by the next Grand jury for perpetrating that joke upon the Cook family last week. However, it can be well established as a fact that The Cook House was rightly named. L. H., the host is a boss Cook; Miss Eva, the hostess, is an A No. 1 Cook; C. H., the clerk, is no slouch of a Cook; while C. R. and J. W., the carpenters who built the house are both Cooks of standing; but John Chinaman as the chief cook, will see to it that the broth isn't spoiled by so many Cooks, and people generally will agree that it is no wonder the Sunday dinners continue so popular.

California Comb Honey at C. Grissen's.

Use Babbitts loaf, the best in the market at C. Grissen's.

The season is fully 14 days later this year than for several years past.

Born to the wife of Beecher Walker, a daughter—a nine pounder. Mother and child doing finely. It is expected the father will be all right in a few days.

Our worthy friend, J. Holt Nelson, has graduated in dentistry from the office of Dr. Tucker, and left the city last week for the purpose of looking up a permanent location for business. Genial, affable, skillful; of full stature, every inch a man, Holt will make his mark in the world, and lucky will be the community which can claim him for a citizen.

Father Hermann preached at St. James Catholic church yesterday. While in the city he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bettman, with whose son, Henry, he made a very agreeable visit recently in Leipsig. We were pleased to meet Father Herman at dinner at Mr. Bettman's to-day, and hear from him such good report as he has to make concerning our young friend Henry Bettman of this city, a student in Leipsig.

We are pleased to hear of the success of Phil Withycomb, in selling all the tile burned by him at North Yamhill. We hope he may burn many kilns this year and sell the last piece, not alone because it will profit a worthy individual, but in addition, to that it will be a proof such as we very much desire, that our agriculturists are devoting more attention to this very important subject of tile drainage.

Business is Business.

And I wish to have it understood that I mean what I say, viz: That all persons indebted to me are required to call and settle accounts forth with, in order to save costs. Get in and square up either by note or coin without delay. J. M. HOLERY. McMinnville, March 9th, 1887.
