CITY.

Read R. B. Hibbs new ad.
Dr. Loughary returned home this morning.

Choral union will meet at Mr. Roots this evening.

District Attorney Bradshaw was in the city yesterday.

A Fine line of gents fine shoes just received at Redmonds.

Opening day at Appersons, lawns, etc, Thursday. Goods arriving.

B. F. Fuller was quite suddenly taken ill yesterday, but is better to-day.

Dandy new machines, rufflers and attachments just received by J. I. Knight.

The tin wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Henderson will take place Thursday evening.

Wm. M. C. Crisman has caught the building fever, and is making additions to his barn.

W. P. Johnson, an artist of note, will occupy the Sanders & Martin gallery in this city after the first.

The Jubilee Minstrels have decided to give an entertainment at North Yamhill to-morrow night.

Henderson Bros. are engaged in doubling the capacity of their carriage repository and yard room, at the City Stables.

Fun on the Bristol is not alone mirth provoking; but the pieces are set to some of the finest music. All should attend.

J. M. Johns of Walla Walla, while enroute homewards from a visit to San Francisco called upon F. W. Martin and family last week.

W. H. Bingham has lost his watch guard. It has his name on it. The owner will confer a favor by leaving it at Mr. Bingham's office.

Mr. Bingham has now got just the thing for the people; and it is a home invention too, Jeff Wrights patent spring bed. It sells for $3.25 and 2.50 each, two styles.

We are in receipt of the programme of the teachers institute for the third judicial district and Linn county, which is to be held at Albany, April 6, 7 and 8, 1887. The railroad companies will make the usual reduction to teachers who wish to attend.

W. T. Coleman has sued Sam Elmore. That gets us. What's the matter with the whirligig of the times, anyhow?

We are glad to know that a full house is promised for Thursday night, on the occasion of the reproduction of Fun on the Bristol.

Hodson's yesterday completed the cornice work on Cooks hotel. It shows for itself as nice a job as could be produced anywhere, and all made at home.

J. F. Martin, formerly with Baxter & Martin, has leased the old livery building on Third street, and will put in a full line of machinery next week.

There will be special services at the Christian church every evening this week. Preaching by Eld. J. A. Campbell. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

If the march of improvement in this place keeps pace with the start noticeable this week, McMinnville will be a city equal to Spokane Falls in due course of time; and why not?

Mr. Perkins, team and all, went though the north Yamhill bridge, near the depot, a few days since, and were fished out from the under side with scarcely a scratch. It was a most miraculous event.

It has been wisely suggested that the corporate authorities of this city should secure a block of land, suitable for city purposes, this year. It is quite time to be looking about.

"Fun on the Bristol," that most successful musical comedy of the age, will be produced at Garrison Opera house, March 24th, under the management of M. B. Goldstein, with the popular comedians Harry Brown and Jas. T. Kelly, and a strong company.

If there be five daily trains with which to get in and out of Lafayette it seems strange to Joggles that Emma Heath should be boycotted for riding into the shire town behind a McMinnville team. So it would, Joggles; but that statement about such fine railway accommodation was perhaps mythical; "in the eye" of the Register man, so to speak.

Take the daily.

A Word to the Wise.

President Cleveland may think the precincts of classic Yamhill too small fry to bestow a moments reflection upon; but what if Yamhill county should decide the next Presidential election? Did he ever pause to contemplate such possibility? No; well it's time he did. Some of our cotemporaries are climbing some very distant hills when they predict the possibility of trouble in 1889 should a democrat be elected to congress from the second district of Rhode Island, in which event neither party would have a majority of the states should the election of president be thrown into the house. These timorous souls may rest in peace. A democrat will not be elected from Rhode Island, and the presidential election will be settled at the polls; where, it is true, the possibility of a tie is quite as probable as in the house. Then Oregon may step into the breach again, as once before, with its three little votes; and what if Oregon should be so close that the vote of Yamhill county would be necessary to decide the issue. Don't you think, in such event, that the President, Postmaster General, et. al., would be willing to recognize us? Of course; then they'd better hunt around and forthwith unroll that bit of red tape which shuts off our Sheridan and Bellevue mail. Be lively Grover, the petition has been sent up, and we must be granted respectful hearing without postponement.

President Cleveland was 50 years old March 18th. This serves to remind the people that he is old enough, big enough, and ought to have known better than to kill the river and harbor bill.

If we are not to judge a man by his dress, or some other salient feature or act that we catch at a glance, how are we to judge him unless we have known him long enough to learn his character? Take this hint, and call upon Bishop & Kay this very day.

Help the immigration committee to build up the county.
