CITY.

The nicest things in the market for ladies are those summer wraps at Appersons.

Go to Wm. Galloway for plows. A choice selection, closing out cheaper than the cheapest.

Gents and boys summer hats in various styles, for use and good looks, as cheap as dirt, at Apperson's.

Bring on your job work. We are now prepared to do job work in the latest and most approved style of the art.

The Weekly Reporter, a faithful and complete compendium of the week's news, is furnished for 12½ cents a month.

Acrobatic drapery at Apperson's beats all the ground and lofty tumbling in prices and styles of goods, in this city.

Miss Belle Johnson, teacher of music in McMinnville and at McMinnville college. Residence corner of Second and C Streets.

The ladies will be pleased with those fine kid gloves at Apperson's; all new shades of the Constanza style. Also, best pure silk Jersey gloves.

Advertisements, etc., intended for publication in The Weekly Reporter must be handed in Tuesday morning. We cannot in future deviate from this rule.

In consequence of a sale of the premises occupied by L. Bettman, he is marking prices on goods down below cost, to sell out slick and clean. Give him a call.

The City Grocery Store of Baxter & Rogers, is the place to replenish your larder. They are selling only fresh groceries, and these at bed rock prices. Give them a trial order.

Apperson's invoice of Boots and shoes, from W. H. Tenney & Co., Boston, was snow blockaded in Dakota, but a dispatch to-day informs him that the car has been dug out and sent ahead. Look for this stock to open your eyes, both as to styles and prices.

The eighth annual Stallion Show will be given in McMinnville, Saturday April 30th 1887. All breeders are invited to present their applications with pedigree of horses to be shown, to Uncle Jim Fletcher, that all may appear in the report without confusion.

Our agents are advised that we cannot pay commissions upon reduced prices. The Reporter for all of 1887 will be $1.50 (to Jan. 1, 1888), but the subscriber must remit us the full amount. Remit money by Postal Order, Registered letter or express, at our risk, but not at our expense.

The Reporter cannot undertake to preserve or return rejected communications. Contributors who wish to possess their manuscripts, if unused, should keep a copy. Matter of whatever character intended for publication must, if its appearance the same day is desired, reach the office not later than 12 o'clock noon. No attention paid to anonymous letters.

The interior of Appersons store to-day resembles spring in all its glory, because of the display of handsome seasonable goods. The stock consists in part of Madras drapery, Scrim, Crinkle, Manchester, Panama, Batiste lawns, Pac. Organdies, new prints, elegant parasols, sun-shades, Oriental laces, elegant robes, etc., etc., all beautiful, greatly to be admired, and within reach of all buyers, they sell so cheap.

McCarty's Pension Claim.

"Are you the pension-claim agent Whose name is down there on the door?"

Will, my name, sor, is Terrance McCarty;

An' I'll put me hat doon on the flure While I tell you me business. Tim Murphy—

He's a neighbor of moine, sor, is Tim:

Has jist got his pinsion, an' I sor, Did the bulk of the swearing for him.

"These pinsions are very convanient, An' they're aisy to git, too, you see. So I thought that I'd take wan meself, now,

An' have Tim do the swarin' for me. So many are thrying for pinsions

That I thought I'd try it a whack, For soiehow in lepping the bounties, Bedad, sor, I hurted me back."

—King O'Mally.
