

"Prohibition We Must See."

WORDS AND MUSIC BY PROF. CRAWFORD.

The temperance workers are gathering to-day,
And calling for men to join the array
Of those who are working for God and for home,
By staying the traffic of whisky and rum.

CHORUS.

We will stand beside our colors,
We will work for fallen brothers,
Prohibition we must see.
The amendment must be carried
Next November.
For the land we love so dearly
Must be free.

O ye who would labor the fallen to save,
And rescue the drunkard from death and the grave,
Unite in the chorus, and swell the refrain,
And banish the traffic from city and plain.

CHOR.

Our homes may be darkened, our hearts may be sad
To see that fair flowers in ashes are laid,
The Nation is rising, then wake at the call,
And banish forever the Demon's dark thrall,
How joyous and happy will be the glad day,
When strong drink no longer is holding his sway,
When freedom and virtue shall rise up to stay,
We hail thee, bright morning, thrice welcome thy stay.

OWED TO

THE ROOSTER.

How dear to my heart is the elegant rooster,
Old Public Opinion we all know so well,
Who lifts up his voice when people are tickled,
And crows when his tidings are joyful to tell.
The dooster the booster
The bouncing old rooster
The jolly old rooster with tidings to tell.
Now lately this rooster has taken to crowing
In favor of us and the goods that we sell.
Our trade is increasing and daily increasing
Due to the public opinion I know very well.
Then hurrah for the rooster
The bouncing old rooster
The jolly old rooster with tidings to tell.

That people are please with the prices and goods sold by
