

CITY.

Johnson is coming.
Wait for Johnson before having your picture taken.
Remember that Johnson the photographer will be here Aug. 3d.
Mrs. M. T. Collins returned to her home in East Portland this morning.
The Y. W. C. T. U. meets Wednesday evening July 27, at the residence of Mrs. Dr. Johnson at 8 o'clock sharp.
L. Rogers and wife and Tom Rogers, who have been enjoying camp life at Nestucca returned yesterday afternoon.
Bishop & Kay have their window full of straw and summer hats that can be bought at your own price. Don't fail to see them.
W. P. Johnson the leading photographer will be here Aug. 3d, 4th and 5th, for THREE days only, at the old stand. Get ready and have a splendid photo taken for your friends.
T. B. Henderson Esq. of Amity called yesterday and left his contribution for the leading, liveliest journal in the valley. Mr. Henderson has been spending the summer at the coast and his wife's health was greatly improved. As soon as harvesting is over he will return for a time.
S. F. Harding, formerly employed on the Astoria Transcript has bought the Lafayette Register and will take possession August 1st. Politically it will probably have a tendency toward democracy. Mr. Harding is known as a prohibitionist, and some sympathy may be extended to that party.
The concert, at the M. E. church last evening given by Prof. Randall and his class of forty voices, was well attended and highly enjoyed by all. The choruses were well sung, the main deficiency being in the tenor cleff. The duos, trios and quartets were well rendered. The class shows excellent training reflecting credit on Prof. Randall, as a teacher. A permanent organization was effected by electing Prof. Crawford leader, and meeting Friday evening at the M. E. church.
The undersigned has not the largest stock of harvest machine oils in the world, but has got some castor oil.
Castor machine oil.
Lard oil.
Challenge machine oil.
Cold Test lubricating oil.
West Virginia oil.
Skidgate oil.
Rhode Island axle oil.
Neats foot and sweet oil.
And if those in need of oils will call, will be pleased to make you price on same by the case, can or gallon, and if you don't buy, it may assist you in getting cheap oil elsewhere.
A. J. APPERSON.

Mrs. Gallentine is sick-a-bed. Prof. Randall and wife left this morning for Corvallis.
Mrs. Holt Turner, of Portland is visiting with her mother in this city.
Mrs. Gus. Detmering left for Dayton this morning, on a visit to her parents.
Messers. Wortman and Hibbs captured seven fine grouse last evening on the Hibbs farm.
A union temperance meeting will be held at the Christain church, Sunday evening at 8 p. m. The public are cordially invited to attend.
St. Nicholas for August has reached our table. It is a splendid number and as interesting for old as the young. Get a copy and read it.
John Wortman yesterday received his commission to act as agent for the Columbia Fire and Marine Insurance Co. of Portland. His certificate is No. 1, the first issued.
The contract has been let by Gen. Anderson, of the Northern Pacific, to Hoffman & Bates, of Portland, for the construction of a drawbridge in the high trestle across the bay at Tacoma.
C. C. Campbell, foreman for A. W. Berry at Cape Fox, Tongas narrows, Alaska, fell from the roof of the cannery on the 9th inst. He struck on the rocks, and lived only half an hour.
This morning Mr. R. M. Day, a prominent furniture manufacturer, fell from the roof of his factory, a distance of twenty-five feet, sustaining injuries from which his life was despaired of.
It was rumored on the streets yesterday that the judges of Polk county were shaking in their boots, because three hundred farmers and others had said that Blackburn should go home free.
Ruby Gill, aged nine years, an adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Pennington, died yesterday morning and was buried to-day. She has been a sufferer from spinal complaint since infancy.
"Facts are stubborn things," and sufferers from chills and fever find this complaint a very stubborn fact until they commence the use of Ayer's Ague Cure. This medicine never fails to cure even the worst cases.
Greater benefits may be derived from the vacation season if, at the same time, the blood is being cleansed and vitalized by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. An increase of appetite, vigor, and buoyancy of spirits attend the use of this medicine.
Journalism appears to be on the change in Yamhill at present. First comes D. C. Ireland who retires from THE REPORTER followed shortly after by A. L. Talmage retiring from the Telephone and these two now dove-tail with the Westerfield Bros. who step down and out Truly the life of a journalist is very uncertain, especially in the country.

The West Shore for August is at hand. It grows better every issue.
We have received the prospectus of the State Normal school located at Ashland for 1887-8. It is a neat and attractive pamphlet of over 30 pages, and contains much matter of interest. We observe that Yamhill county is entitled to three free scholarships in the institution. For particulars address J. S. Sweet, president Ashland Normal school, Ashland Oregon.
The first installment of the Chehalem valley board of emigration society's descriptive circular is ready for distribution. It a well written article on the Chehalem valley profusely illustrated, and printed on heavy folio paper. This work speaks well for McMinnville, as it was printed at the REPORTER job rooms, and will compare favorably with similar work issued in the east. Send for one at the boards office, Newberg Oregon.
Even Harper's Weekly is lamenting to think this great reform civil service administration has been so hypocritical as to pretend to be mugwump in its tendencies and yet at the end of two years 97 per cent. of the offices which are under its control are in the hands of partisan democrats. It is as it ought to be, only the three per cent. should be removed and probably will be within the next six months. The pretense of living up to the civil service reform principles is a sham and a fraud and only worthy of a humbug and should be abandoned forever.
Business Notice.
Any one having business with W. D. Fenton or with the firm of Fenton & Fenton, will call at the McMinnville office on Wednesdays and Saturdays at 3 o'clock p. m., or at the Lafayette office at any other time. W. D. Fenton will be absent until August 15th. jyl5 1m
