The Women's Society of Christian Service held its meeting at the home of Mrs. Lyle Kinzer Tuesday afternoon with 12 members present. Mrs. Alex Bodeker was in charge of the business meeting and Miss Helen Queen led the devotions in the absence of Mrs. George Clippell. A good report was given on the bazaar, and plans were made for the next meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. Alex Bodeker with Mrs. Roy Huber as hostess. A Christmas party will be enjoyed with members bringing gifts for their silent sisters and revealing their names. Gifts will be sent to the Children's Home. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served to Medames Alex Kulken, Ramie Martell, Alex Bodeker, Roy Huber, George Huffman, Albert Ring, Loren Changerlain, Daisy Johnston, Anna Johnson, Miss Queen and the hostess.

Faith Rebekah Lodge held its meeting at the hall with a good attendance, with Ruth Morris, noble grand, and Helen McClurg, vice grand, presiding. The regular routine of business was carried out, with election of officers the main business.

The following were elected: Helen McClurg, noble grand, Frances McCarley, vice grand, Garnett Bassett, secretary, Beulah Lewis, treasurer, and Alma Olmstead, financial secretary.

Plans were made for the next meeting when a Christmas party will be held. Each member is to bring a gift for the gift exchange, also a gift for their silent sister, at which time their names will be revealed.

At the social hour dainty refreshments were served by Cleve Taylor, Binche Wagner and May Patton. Table decorations carried out the Christmas motif.

The Missionary Friendship tour, "Tomorrow Is Here," was completed Friday evening with the final meeting held at the Methodist Church.

This series of meetings was held weekly, and found to be very instructive. Mrs. Laurence Walworth and Miss Helen Queen were instructors.

The Lyons Parent-Teacher Assn. held its meeting Friday evening at the school house with Burt Smith, president, as chairman. Plans were made for the Christmas program and tree which will be held at Rebekah Hall, Thursday evening, Dec. 23. Mrs. Floyd Bassett and Mrs. George Huffman were appointed on the candy committee to see about treats for the children. Glass jars were placed at the stores and telephone office for donations for the treats. Contributions will be greatly appreciated. A committee, Mrs. Bassett, Mrs. Paul Johnston and Mrs. Wilson Stevens, was named to buy choir robes. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Johnson of Portland spent the week end at the home of her parents, Mrs. George Keeley of Portland visited at the homes of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Huber and her brother, Donald Huber and family.

The cub scouts held their pack meeting at Rebekah Hall Friday evening with a good attendance and an excellent display of work. A short program of accordion music was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Alex Muzachenko, and a vocal solo by Jeannine Bentley was heard, followed by other entertainment. A graduation ceremony was held for Arlo Ashley. Den Mothers Mrs. Arthur Olmstead and Mrs. Art Ayers were present with their troop.

Leland Manning accompanied by Buster Berry left Friday morning for San Francisco with a large truckload of Christmas trees. They will return this week end.

Miss Imogene Royce, a student at OSC, is spending the holidays at the home of her parents.
