Gates

Members of the Gates Women's Club met in the social rooms of the high school Thursday afternoon in regular session. A dessert luncheon was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Elmer Stewart and Mrs. Melbourne Rambo. Mrs. Stewart presided at the business meeting which followed the luncheon hour. A report of the recent bazaar was made, and $1308 was reported in the building fund. A Christmas party and gift exchange will be held at the home of Mrs. Joe Joaquin. The next regular meeting, Jan. 13, will have as its subject a demonstration, "Conserve Your."

A preschool clinic was held at the schoolhouse Monday with Dr. Stone, county health physician, and Miss J. Schneider, nurse, in charge. Local women assisting were Mrs. Glen Hennes, Mrs. Burrel Cole and Mrs. Laura Joaquin. Several children were vaccinated and examined.

Mr. and Mrs. Melbourne Rambo and two children and Mrs. Steve Champ were Stayton visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Rosa Roten who left last June to spend the summer with relatives in the east, returned Saturday. Mrs. Roten made the trip both ways by air and visited Salt Lake, Chicago and North and South Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilson and daughter Helen and Mrs. Robert Wilson did some of their Christmas shopping in Stayton Saturday.

Ernest Wrigglesworth received word last week of the arrival of a new granddaughter born in Glendale, Calif., to his son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wrigglesworth who, until a short time ago, resided in Gates.

A Self Supporting, Tax Paying Private Enterprise

It's absolutely true.

Yes, you can reach your eastern destinations via California and the scenic beauty of northern U.S. lines for no more rail fare than going straight East and back!

We don't mean to brag, but thinking we're kidding when we told you this bargain. It certainly seems like all these scenic attractions—plus the winter sun, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Palm Springs, and the best of the West—should cost a whale of a lot more!

But it doesn't. In fact, your destination is New York, you can even add New York to your trip!

The best way we can help you is with an actual ticket. When you see a ticket agent to route your ticket East, please see for yourself.
