Highlight of the evening was the dedication of the new electric signet recently purchased by the chapter. Installation of new officers will be held Jan. 3 with Rex Hartley, worthy grand patron, as installing officer.

The annual council meeting of the Marion district Boy Scouts organization was held Tuesday night, Dec. 14, in the recreation rooms of the Gates high school, with Scout and Cub leaders, sponsors and others present.

A dinner prepared by Mrs. Velma Carey was served at 7 o'clock to the 22 in attendance.

L. E. Spraker, Stayton publisher, presided at the meeting which followed the dinner. F. M. Forrette was elected chairman of the district, replacing Mr. Spraker who had served for the past three years in that office. Barney Kirsch of Mehama was elected vice chairman, and the district committee included Clyde Golden, Mill City, Otis White, Detroit, L. C. Martin, George Huffman, Kenneth Hansen, Mr. Spraker, C. R. Baldwin, Glen Julian, E. T. Moore, T. R. Burton and Raymond Frey.

After dinner speaker was M. D. Woolley of the Woodburn State Training School, who urged that the leaders try to impress on the public the need of scouting. He declared that scouting taught many things that boys once learned from their fathers when life was at a less rapid pace. Mrs. Woolley stressed the importance of early training and guidance to direct the boy's energies into useful and productive channels to avoid too much idle time, which, he said, leads to serious trouble for the lad.

Attending were Mr. Woolley, Eric Soderberg, Albany and Walter Scott, Salem, assistant Scout executives; Mr. and Mrs. Spraker, Clarence Baldwin and Frank Forrette, Stayton; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Grimes, Lyons; Mr. and Mrs. Barney Kirsch, Mehama; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Howe, George Veteto, W. Hampton, Clyde Golden and R. L. Stiffler, Mill City; and Mr. and Mrs. Burton, Mrs. Carey, Harry Harmon and Gale Carey.
