Edward Chance Jr. was brought home from Dornbecker last Friday and is reported getting along nicely. He was taken to Portland Wednesday for a checkup by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Chance.

Mrs. Otis Dike of Salem has returned to her home after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Ed Chance. The Gates Women's Club is sponsoring a miscellaneous shower for Mrs. Glen Hennes whose home burned to the ground Sunday morning. It will be held Saturday at 1:30 at the school house.

Among those attending the show presented at the State Penitentiary by the convicts as a benefit for the March of Dimes were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hennes, Mrs. Clarence Rush, Mrs. George Stafford and daughter Carmen, Miss Esther Weathers and Marvin Stafford.

T. R. Burton, principal of the local schools, has been ill at his home for more than a week. Mrs. N. J. Pennick was engaged as substitute teacher during his absence from school.

Carl Knutson of Salem, formerly of Gates, spent Saturday at the home of his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Knutson.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kelle and son of Sutherlin were week end guests at the homes of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Kelle and Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Turner.

Miss Jackline Bidegry of Lakeview is a guest at the Norman Garrison home.

The Glen Hennes home in Gates burned to the ground early Sunday morning when fire broke out, supposedly from an overheated furnace.

A benefit dance for the Henneses will be held at the Fire Hall in Mill City Saturday night.

The house was a total loss, and only a few articles of clothing were saved.

Mr. and Mrs. Hennes, their son Earl and a schoolmate, Marlin Cole, were in the house at the time of the fire, which drove them from their home in 10 degree cold.

Keith Hennes, another son, returned in time to see the home ablaze and in his anxiety to learn of the safety of his parents and brother, drove so rapidly that his car skidded into a car park in the driveway leading to the house, damaging both cars.

The home was a landmark overlooking Kings Prairie and was one of the most attractive places in the Canyon. The house, two stories, had been completely remodeled inside and modernized. Among the many valuable articles lost were a new electric range and refrigerator, which had only recently been installed. A washing machine was recovered from an outside porch.

Mrs. Lyle Rush of Salem was complimented Thursday evening when Mrs. Norman Garrison and Mrs. Glen Hennes were hostesses at a bridal shower given in her honor at the home of Mrs. Joe Joaquin.

Games and music provided diversion for the guests during the evening before the gifts were opened. Mrs. Elmer Stewart and Mrs. Bess Vandermeer were awarded prizes in the games and Misses Norma and Lorena Devine presented several accordion numbers. Refreshments were served by the hostesses to the honored guest, Mrs. Rush, her mother of Mill City, Mrs. Vandermeer, Mrs. Clarence Rush, Mrs. Martha Bowes, Mrs. Charles Rush, Mrs. Henry Eccleston, Mrs. Laura Joaquin, Mrs. Elmer Stewart, Mrs. Blanch Dean, Mrs. Elmer Cooper, Mrs. Joe Joaquin, Mrs. Merle Devine and daughters Norma and Lorena. Those sending gifts were Mrs. Tina Graham, Miss Wanda Vanermeerd of Mill City, Mrs. Dale Bassett of Corvallis, Misses Iva, Joy and June Zeller of Scio, Mrs. George Stafford, Miss Carmen Staf-
