Juniors: Phyllis Timm, Ethel Skillings, Dolores Brewer and Ronald Ragsdale.
Sophomores: Wanda Vandermeer, Marlene Verbeck, Betty Humphries.
Freshmen: Alona Daly, Dolores Poole, Lela Kelly, Arlene Kuhiman, Donna Cook and Bob Shelton.

LYONS PLANS PIE SOCIAL

The executive committee of the Lyons PAT met at the home of Mrs. Burl Smith Thursday evening to plan for the coming year. A pie social will be held at Rebekah Hall Feb. 11. Also a musical program and games will be offered.

About 50 persons attended the dance Saturday night at the Bohemian hall. It was the first of a series of dances planned by the lodge. The orchestra included Mrs. Beatrice Jones, Anton and Don Fleck and Ernest Podrabsky. In charge of the lunch was Mrs. Ernest Podrabsky and Mrs. Jack Carey.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles French had dinner with the Kenneth Harris Sunday.

Mill City girls recently installed in the Order of Rainbow for Girls, Acacia Assembly, Stayton, were:

Marlene Verbeck, Faith; Patricia Cree, confidential observer; Lela Mel Kelly, musician; Dorothy Downer, member of choir; Jeannine Bentley, installing officer. Mrs. W. B. Shuey was named to the advisory board. Visitors included Mrs. Lois Walker and daughter Lois, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Cree and LaVetta Powelson.

GRANGERS HEAR STORY OF OREGON TRAIL RIDE

Marion County Pomona Grange in a meeting in Stayton last week heard Rev. John W. Beard of Portland tell of the 2500 mile horseback ride they took last year along the route of the old Oregon trail.

W. M. Tate, master presided over the meeting which voiced opposition to the tax increase caused by the operation of the Marion County rural school district; approved a resolution calling for the diversion of more income and excise taxes for school support; and opposed any alteration in initiative and referendum statutes.

Elmer McClure, Portland, state overseer, called upon the Granges to be more active on legislative matters. The George Vetetos were guests Saturday night of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. King.

Mr. and Mrs. George Veteto visited their boss, John Johanson, and Mrs. Johanson in Silverton Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Milan Weston, formerly of Mill City, are now living in Waldport, having moved there recently from Klamath, Calif.

Mrs. Artie Mack left for San Francisco Tuesday accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Gladys Kimsey of Mehama to visit another sister there.

Dick Turpin says that great flocks of grosbeaks are here, portending an early spring.

Mrs. Charles Wolverton had lunch in Salem Tuesday with Mrs. Larry Laarbaaken, Mrs. Virgil Johnson and Mrs. James Kerber of Cutler City joined them later.

Mr. and Mrs. Linn Berry, son and daughter-in-law of Forrest Berry, of California, stopped overnight Tuesday.

Mrs. Everett Elliott is ill with a sinus infection.

Miss Daisy Hendricson and Mr. and Mrs. James Houston drove to Salem Tuesday.

Anna May and Norma Nelson are confined to their home with the flu. A benefit dance will be given Friday at the Fire Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hill and son had dinner in Stayton Tuesday evening.

It Pays to Be Polite to Civits

Fred Skillings, Mill Valley (Gooch) logger, operates on the theory that it pays to be polite—even to civit cats.

The other night, when the cold weather was bringing the wildlife out of the hills into the valley, for warmth and food, the Skillings household was asleep. A bedroom window was slightly open. Mr. Skillings and his wife awoke to find they had a visitor, and a strong aroma indicated the species.

A whispered conference finally decided on tactics.

They called to their son, Delmar, who was upstairs, to come down and turn on the front room light, open the front door and the bedroom door where they were trying to be as nice as could be to their visitor. They didn't say, "Nice kitty!" however, although they doubtless would have, if it could help.

The civit cat decided to make an exit out through the lighted room and the open door. He didn't leave a calling card.

Wolves Win Three

The Timberwolves came back from Gater Tuesday night with a 56 to 10 victory on their neighbor's basketball court.

The Gates team had one good quarter, the second, when they outplayed and outscored their visitors.

Hunter for Mill City led the scoring with 16 points, and Leo Poole had 14. Miller was close behind with 12. Muisse for Gates accounted for 12 of their points.

In the game for Mill City were also Thorley, Baltimore, Wirick, Key, Lawrence Poole, Verbeck. For Gates Ziebert Eccleston, Carey, Knapp, Cripes, Roney, J. Oliver and E. Oliver.

The Wolves won another league game with Turner 39 to 25, with Verbeck taking high point honors. The also won a close one with the Salem B team, winning 32-31. Lawrence Poole, guard, took scoring honors from the regular forwards, with 9; Miller, center, had 8; Leo Poole, 4; Verbeck, 5.

Friday night the Timberwolves will play the Detroit team here.

It will be one of the few remaining home dates for the high school team which has, if not the best, at least second team in the league. So far they have lost only to Sublimity.
