FEBRUARY 20-27, 1949

MAROONED IN WYOMING

Gene Armstrong, Southern Pacific agent, who went back to Kansas for his family recently, is snowbound in Wyoming and has been for ten days.

It is uncertain when he will get through. Oscar West of Portland is substituting for him.

Mrs. Rose Daly gave a birthday party for Wilbur Meinert Sunday. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Al Millsap of Gates.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Bodeker and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Merrill and children drove to the coast Sunday.

Mrs. Ed Rupp left Tuesday for Canby to visit Mr. Rupp's mother, Mrs. Lena Rupp.

Mrs. Ed Cooke was in Salem Tuesday on business.

The Lyons Variety Store really saw a silver lining in the cold weather. Their business increased 15 per cent over last January. The fact that people stayed at home and shopped at home was the reason.

The 6th grade Cawpfire group, the Oocwasins, will be taught knitting at their next meeting by Miss Hope Boney.

NOTICE—Mill City Women's Club will meet Tuesday, March 1, at the home of Mrs. Ernest Graham.

The regular meeting of Marilyn Chapter, No. 145, Order of the Eastrn Star, was held at the lodge hall Monday evening.

Fern Shuey, worthy matron, appointed Alice Rupp and La Von Kriever as a committee to purchase material for a cover for the new electric signet. Appointed to make the cover were La Von Kriever and Ruth Lanphear. Wilson Stevens, worthy patron, offered to make a masonite cover to protect the glass front of the signet.

It was announced that the Willamette Matrons and Patrons Assn. will hold its next meeting here at 8 p. m. Thursday, March 10. Alice Rupp was appointed entertainment chairman.

Serving on the refreshment committee Monday night were Alice Rupp, Eva Beck and Vivian Walworth. The tables were attractively decorated in the Valentine motif. A large beautifully decorated cake honored Fern Shuey, the worthy matron.

KINDERGARTEN MEETING SET

A meeting of the mothers of the Lyons kindergarten group will be held Friday, Feb. 25, at 8 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Joe Cribbs. Besides the regular business meeting, Mrs. Giles Brown, primary teacher in the Lyons consolidated school, will talk on the need of preparing the preschool child for school.

All mothers interested are invited to attend and meet with the group. The kindergarten children have been working with finger painting under the direction of Mrs. Charles Power, teacher. Mrs. Powers is a graduate of the University of California and majored in education and art.

The kindergarten at present is using a borrowed phonograph in its music study and would like the donation of a phonograph and children's records for the school. The school will buy a good phonograph if the price is modest and within its budget. Anyone interested in selling or donating please call Mrs. Clarence Jungwirth.
