A program with some of the students imitating Hollywood celebrities was a howling success.

The three Andrews sisters were represented by three boys dressed in girls' clothing. They were Dick Hasegan, Cecil Willis and Don Fryer. Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers were represented by Roberta Manning and Dick Hasegan in a dance routine. Duane Thomason and Harlow White did their best to imitate Eddy Arnold and Frank Sinatra.

Hazel Blain and Harlow White were elected king and queen for the party.

Ice cream and cookies were served.

The highway from Idanha to Marion Forks was opened late last week to traffic again.

The road has been closed to the public for nearly a week, because of the deep snow.

Lawrence Wilson of Lebanon, SP conductor, miraculously escaped injury Thursday morning when he jumped from his "cat" as it was about to turn over when he was plowing snow.

The accident happened at the turntable, when the "cat" slipped and overturned bottom side up into the pit.

Mrs. L. Byrket, operator of the self-service laundry, spent the week end in Salem. Her husband, L. Byrket, is in the real estate business there.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Matilda spent last week in Portland and Yakima. Mr. Matilda, a war veteran, reported at Yakima for a checkup.

Visiting at the E. V. Gossett home are Mr. Gossett's mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Smith, and sister, Miss Wanita Gossett of Bakersfield, Calif.

An error was made in last week's paper in regard to Phil Snyder. He is not a surveyor for the PRA but with the Army Engineers.

Louis Landers recently brought his wife and family here from Portland. Mr. Landers who is with the Army Engineers has made his home here for about six months.

The shuffleboard tournament here last week at Detroit Limited recorded the following winners. Wednesday, 32 players, Francis Stout and Clifford Veal, Friday, 28 players, Emmett Dorothy and Gayle Fagan. Ladies night is Thursday.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Johnson Sunday were Mrs. Johnson's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cornu of Pratum.

Glen Dryden spent last week in Portland visiting with friends.

The Civic Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Ed Hanan March 1. Mrs. Lorraine Sophy will serve as co-hostess.

Joe Wright who underwent a major operation at Salem Memorial Hospital, was able to leave last Saturday. He and Mrs. Wright have an apartment in Salem where Joe will remain for awhile for further treatment. Happy landings, Joe, we are all pulling for you.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ward and Sgt. I-C.W. D. White of Portland and Ft. Lewis visited with friends and relatives here Sunday.

George Scott received a pleasant surprise when his son John and fiancée, of New York, whom he had not seen for 20 years, visited him. The couple accompanied by Mr. Scott left for Portland last week, where they are visiting with the mother, Clara B. Scott. Young Scott is a talented musician and plays in a band on luxury liners.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Mattoon spent a few days in Salem last week on business. They reported water is over is over the highway in several places in some instances to the running-board of the car.

It's becoming a common sight to see Mary Ann—our pet deer—bring wild deer into town. Last week in the afternoon and again Monday a doe, possibly a year younger than Mary Ann, followed her in 30 feet of the writer's porch.

Though she could not be coaxed any closer for food, she did not run when it was thrown to her. From their appearance they seem to have wintered fairly well for the present.

SHOEING A HORSE is undoubtedly a harder job than shoeing a man (possibly because there are twice as many feet) but comfort and durability are a prime factor in either. The tools, shown in this rare old steel engraving, are not anything like the expert machines down at our place, but they represent the thing we like to represent... old-fashioned personal attention methods. When we sell shoes, repair shoes or make shoes we deal with YOU. Our place is not for mass consumption. Each customer has his own special problem. We like to think we can solve that problem.
