Vaccinating Pigs
As small pigs are more easily handled than large ones, it is advisable to have pigs vaccinated against cholera, castrated, and ear-marked before they are weaned—at about eight weeks of age. It is more economical to have pigs vaccinated early because not as much serum is required as for large pigs and hogs. Early vaccination also provides longer immunity.

X-ray Measures Steel
Thickness of red hot steel as it leaves a rolling mill's finishing stands now can be determined accurately and speedily by electronic X-ray without touching the metal. Until recently the measurement was made by hand, after the steel had cooled from at least 1,400 degrees to a point where a micrometer could be held against the metal.

Mastiff Fights
Until Victoria's time, mastiffs in England provided cruel amusement in spectator pits for dog fighting and bull and bear baiting. On the queen's insistence, such exploitation was outlawed in 1835, though the law was held lightly for many years.

Life of Snakes
Some snakes have been known to live from one to two years without food by absorbing the fat of their own bodies.

Bass Spawning Season

Cut-Rate Sols Cut Costs
Inflation-battered Americans might seek relief in Peru where the dollar is king. According to Peruvian International Airways, devaluation of the sol has resulted in such bargains as a shoe shine for three cents, American movies 25 cents, and an average taxi ride 16 cents. A room at Lima's Hotel Bolivar with three meals and five o'clock tea costs 60 sols — about $4.00.

Highway Signs
An octagonal, or eight-sided sign means STOP—you're approaching a stop street, a trunk line junction, or perhaps a dangerous corner. A round sign indicates there is a railroad crossing ahead. A diamond-shaped sign means that you should slow down — immediately ahead may be a dangerous curve or hill, a narrow bridge, end of pavement, bad road, etc.

Before Canning
To prevent light colored fruit such as apples, pears, and peaches from darkening, drop them into a vinegar solution. Use two tablespoons of vinegar to a gallon of water. Fruit should have a slight rinse before canning.

Iron In Milk
Iron will appear in a cow's milk within five minutes after the animal is fed iron-containing food. This was discovered by experiments with radio-active iron.

One-Eighth H. P. Motor

Dogs Can't Read

A woman went to buy a drinking bowl for her dog, and the shopkeeper asked her if she would like one with the inscription, "For the dog."

"It really doesn't matter," she replied. "My husband never drinks water, and the dog can't read."

Simple Geography

Teacher: "What is Australia bounded by, Tommy?"
Tommy (eagerly): "Kangaroos."

AUTOS WITHOUT DELAY

It is predicted by several Detroit automobile makers that within six months it will be possible to walk into most agencies and get a car with positively no waiting. This will mean that the auto salesman will bother to get up out of his chair. The proprietor may drop that deep-freeze manner and start cultivating good-will again.

We understand some salesrooms are already starting to rehearse the staff in shaking the head up and down instead of negatively. It has been years since some auto salesmen have had any practice in vigorous salesmanship. They have been specialists in discouraging customers. It is not going to be easy reconvertng them into warm human beings dealing in a popular product.

There will be plenty of cardiac trouble when people walk into agencies once more in this country and anybody shows a mild interest in them. And swooning will be nationwide when dealers call on the phone and "would you let us give you a demonstration this afternoon?"

Customer (amazed)—Pardon me; I must be in the wrong alley.

Salesman—What makes you think so?

Customer—You're cordial! You're not resenting my entrance. This can't be an auto agency.

Salesman—Indeed it is. Have a chair! Relax!

Customer—Stop kidding. I know no ice flow can melt that fast.

Salesman—I'm not kidding. I'm happy to see you and trust I may interest you in a new car.

Customer—Quick, an aspirin tablet!

Salesman—Certainly. Take a couple on the house.

Customer—Two won't be enough. Let's get this straight. Are you really an auto salesman?

Salesman—Certainly.

Customer—And are you authorized by the boss to welcome a prospective buyer this way?

Salesman—Yes, he is out of the icepack, too. What model would you like?

Customer—You mean without putting my name on a list?

Salesman—Exactly. No more lists.

Customer—That's going to be a little hard to get used to. It gives a man prestige to be on those waiting lists. I was on so many that, if by some miracle production had suddenly caught up with the demand, I would have had 15 new cars at my door.

Salesman—From now on you get a car when you want it.

Customer—Right away?

Salesman—At once.

Customer—With no political influence?

Salesman—None.

Customer—No angles?

Salesman—Not one.

Customer—No bonus?

Salesman—Not at all.

Customer—What about my old car?

Salesman—we give you a fair price for it and don't even insist you trade it in if you can do better at private sale.

(The customer faints.)

Two new types of phonograph discs are on the market, both operating at different speeds. Neither can be played on the same machine or on the orthodox phonograph. The proper inquiry in the home now would seem to be, "Would you like to hear a new record or don't you care to get mixed up with an engineering problem?"

Florida has never had such fun as it has been having playing up those newspaper photographs of snow on the orange groves of California.

A Detroit engineer says that a jet motor is near development for automobiles. Folks along super highways had been under the impression they were in use already.

In a jet-propelled auto a lot of the charm rests in the fact you never know a traffic light has turned red on you except by rumor.

"White House repairs may now cost four instead of one million dollars."—News item.

We were all for that pay increase for the President.

Homing Pigeon Can't Miss

Science has a pretty good idea of how the homing pigeon gets home. According to Prof. Henry L. Yeagley of Pennsylvania, the pigeon is equipped with an enormously sensitive navigation device that can determine minute differences in the earth's magnetic field and the rate of the earth's surface turning under him.

When making clothes for children, buy an extra card of matching buttons for each garment. Such buttons are priceless when it comes time to replace lost buttons.

Few patterns for little girls call for a placket opening into the skirt; but a sash just can't pull in and conceal excessive inches of dress material—a zipper in a placket and two waistline darts, front and back, will make a surprising improvement in the fit and appearance of the garment.

Baked potatoes should be carefully timed in baking and promptly served to avoid the loss of this vegetable's valuable vitamin C.
