Word has been received by friends of Mrs. Ruby Horner that she was to undergo major surgery at a hospital in Palo Alto, Calif., Feb. 23. No news has yet reached them as to her condition following the operation. Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Rush of Salem spent the week end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rush.

Miss Jackie Bidigary who has been a guest at the Norman Garrison home for some time has accepted a position at Arthur's Cafe in Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Garrison and son Gerald and Miss Bidigary motored to Marion Forks to get pictures of the eep snow there.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Harlan and son Billie from Detroit visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Richards Saturday.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Johnson Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Johnson of Astoria, Miss Norma Jackson of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Johnson and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. Carter and two children, all of Lebanon. All are nephews of Mr. Johnson. Their daughter, Mrs. Robert Levon of San Francisco is still a guest at her parents' home.

Mrs. Albert Millsap and her guest, Mrs. Henrietta Quinn of Seaside, were luncheon guests at the home of Mrs. Curtis Cline Thursday of last week. Mrs. Quinn was also entertained in several homes in Mill City during her week's visit.

The last week of springlike weather brought most everyone out of their enforced hibernation because of the ice and snow of the past two months and many took advantage of the pleasant days to catch up on their shopping. Among those seen in Salem Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Haun, Mr. and Mrs. Melbourne Rambo and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Champ and daughter Lila, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thomas and family.

Mrs. Theodore Burton was accompanied to Salem Wednesday by Mrs. Joe Joaquin, Miss Georgia Shanae, Mrs. Laura Joaquin, Mrs. Albert Millsap and Mrs. Lincoln Henness.

A community dinner was held in the social rooms of the high school Thursday evening of last week. Following the dinner hour cards were in play at several tables. The next regular meeting of the club will be at the school house Thursday afternoon, March 10. At this meeting all past presidents of the club will be guests of honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Brosig have purchased the former home of Mrs. Gwen Schner and with their family will make that their home. The place is located a mile east of Gates on the Linn County side of the river and includes the house, barn and other farm buildings and several acres of land.

Mrs. Marietta Smith of Mill City has been seriously ill at the home of her son, Charles Smith, here. Two other sons, Raymond (Pete) Smith of Coos Bay and Robert Smith of Salem were called home by their mother's illness. Wilbur Smith, another son, was unable to come.

Carolyn spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Turnidge and her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jensen in Salem.

Sunday guests at the Burrell Cole home were Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Anderson and baby and Mrs. Frank Anderson, all of Molalla, and Mrs. George Stewart of Mill City.

Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cooper that their plans to return to Lakeview to make their home after leaving Gates were changed and that they purchased a home in Phoenix, Ore., just beyond Medford, and will reside there.

Mrs. Lyle Shelton of Stayton was a guest at the Melbourne Rambo home one day last week.

Mrs. Don Gessner has returned after several weeks spent with relatives in Salem. Guests Sunday at the Gessner home were Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boaz and family, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Warner and family and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Warner and children, all of Salem. The group enjoy a wiener roast outside in the sunshine. The Gates postoffice is having its face lifted. The building is being shingled on the sides and a new roof was placed recently.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Fisher, N., and Tommy of Forest Grove were week end visitors in Mill City.
