OES Fetes Valley Lodges

By MARY KELLY

Marilyn Chapter, No. 145, OES, was hostess chapter to the Willamette Valley Matrons and Patrons Association at a meeting at the lodge hall last Thursday evening. Greetings were extended to the group by Fern Shuey, worthy matron of Marilyn Chapter, after which Wilson Stevens, worthy patron, led the salute to the flag.

Presiding over the business meeting was the association's president, Celeste Dickinson, St. Mary's Chapter, of Corvallis. Minutes were read by Ralph Kletzing, secretary, of Adah Chapter, independence. Seated with the other officers was Margaret Cunningham, vice president, and present worthy matron of Acacia Chapter, in Stayton.

At the roll call it was disclosed that 110 persons were in attendance from points as distant as Eugene and Corvallis, as well as Dallis, Silverton, Woodburn, Salem and other members from nearby towns. The traveling gavel went to Acacia Chapter, with 16 present. It had previously been presented to Fern Shuey by Virginia Plagman of Euclid Chapter, Jefferson.

Among the distinguished visitors were Rex Hartley, worthy grand patron, and Esther Hartley, grand marshal, both of Jefferson. Ben H. Nichols, past grand patron, also was present.

Invitations were accepted to meet in Independence in April, Sweet Home in May, Corvallis in June, Stayton in September and Eugene in October, with a tentative date for Dallas in November.

A committee appointed to revise the by-laws was headed by Mr. Nichols. Entertainment included three numbers by the guitar club, most of its members being pupils of grade school age.

An Irish skit, "Dad Omen Proves Good," was put on by Marguerite McCoy, Vivian Walworth, Laurel Johnson and Ruth Lamphear, Marilyn members.

The St. Patrick's motif was used in the dining room where a buffet style lunch was served. The refreshment committee included Vivian Walworth, Rachel Olmstead, Leora Stevens, Lois Scott, Hallie Toman, Tina Graham, Beulah Clise and Fern Shuey.

It has been announced that the district meeting of Marilyn Chapter of Mill City, Acacia Chapter of Stayton and Victoria Chapter of Turner will be held Tuesday, April 5, in Stayton.

This annual event marks the official visit of Worthy Grand Matron Irma Thum of Cottage Grove. The Mill City chapter will exemplify the initiatory degree.
