Mrs. Ike Myers returned home on Friday from Gresham after more than a week's visit with friends and relatives there.

Mrs. Bill Bickett spent all day Thursday assisting her husband in branding and dehorning cattle preparatory to turning them out on the range.

Attending lodge from here Wednesday night were Mrs. Ray Sisco, Mrs. Bill Bickett and Mrs. Ray Roberts.

Frank's mill is being remodeled. An entire new roof is being put on. Mr. and Mrs. Phil Dooley and Mike were gone several days last week visiting friends in Drain.

They also visited Steve Myers, a former resident, at Canyonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Russell visited his parents in Yakima, Wash., last week. They reported the weather as very nice there. Trees were budding and no snow.

Snow is fast disappearing here. A few patches are left, but mostly the ground is bare. There has been snow on the ground continuously since November.

Mr. and Mrs. Louie Ray and son Lyle went to Oysterville, Wash., Friday. They returned Sunday, bringing the remaining household goods of M. and Mrs. Lyle Ray who are making their home with his parents.

Mrs. May Quier and Mrs. Fannie Howard were week end visitors at the Ray Roberts home. Mrs. Quier is the postmistress at Buxton, Ore. She is first vice president of the Oregon branch of the League of District Postmasters.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Myers were initiated into the Santiam Grange at Lyons a week ago.

The Altar Society held its meeting at the home of Mrs. Philip Pietrok. Prayers were made for the St. Patrick card party which will be held at the Rebekah hall Thursday evening. Father Schneider showed scenic slides. Present for the meeting were Mesdames John Jungwirth, Francis Jungwirth, Clarence Jungwirth, Mike Fink, Paul Gerath, Sam B. Idges, Bob Free, Herman Free, Lloyd Free, Father Schneider and the hostess.

Mrs. Albert Julian was hostess for the meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service at her home in Fox Valley. Mrs. Daisy Johnston presided over the business meeting in the absence of Mrs. Alex Bodeker. Mrs. George Clippell led the devotions. The time was spent in tying a quilt for Mrs. Chamberlain. Plans were completed for the silver tea to be held in Rebekah Hall Tuesday afternoon March 29. Some members brought tea towels, the project for March. Mrs. Chamberlain donated a pieced quilt to for the bazaar. Mrs. Johnston, Mrs. Minnie Smith and Mrs. Sarah Cookingham were appointed as nominating committee for new officers to be elected the first of July. Present besides were Mesdames Roy Huber, Albert Ring, George Huffman, Burl Smith, Albert Julian, Wallace Power, Glen Julian, Floyd Bassett and Mrs. Anna Johnson.

Faith Rebekah Lodge met at the hall with Helen McClurg, noble grand, and Frances McCarley, vice grand, presiding. After a short business session, for the good of the order Mrs. Hazel Shields gave a talk on friendship. At the social hour the committee, Buelah Lewis, Eva Bressler and Ruth Morris entertained with games. Refreshments followed the St. Patrick motif.

Santiam Valley Grange sponsored a meeting at Rebekah Hall Thursday evening to discuss questions regarding the proposed merger of union high school districts 4 and 5. A representative of the state department of education was present.

The Women's Club held an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. Percy Hiatt Thursday. The day was spent quilting. The club has been inactive this winter due to lack of a meeting place. The clubhouse is being used by the school district for the first grade.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Henick spent the week end in Portland and Hillsboro. They were overnight guests at the home of his brother.
