

DETROIT

Just a word of caution, in reference to the serious auto accident, an account of which appears on Page 1. To those traveling the highway between Detroit and Bend: Due to the severe winter, the pavement, though bare of snow, is buckled in many places. The most dangerous spots are marked by danger flags. But there are numerous places on the highway of risings, dips and rough pavement, which require careful attention of drivers.

The Detroit high school annual staff entertained the high school pupils with a party Friday night in the old grade school building.

The main feature of the evening was an imitation of the well known radio program, "Truth or Consequences." The remainder of the evening was spent dancing. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Seltzinger of Portland were visitors in Detroit last week.

Ray Morby, surveyer for the Army Engineers, is recovering from an illness of several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Smith visited with friends in Albany last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Glasgow and family spent the week end in Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Hauck and Gayle Ann were business callers in Bend Friday.

Visiting with Valder Heath is Albert Paradise of Lincoln, Ga. Rial Ames, formerly employed here was a week end visitor from Myrtle Point, Ore.

Bill Bray, son of E. W. Bray, who has been attending a barber school in Portland, received his diploma and will assist his father in the local barber shop. So step in, boys, if Buzz doesn't get you, Bill will.

Scores for the shuffle board tournament played at Detroit Limited are as follows: Tuesday night, 24 players, winners Francis Stout and Floyd Yarborough. Thursday night, ladies only, 28 players, winners Irene Stout and Bobbie Renner. Mrs. John Hanan and son Ed were business callers in Portland for a few days last week. Mrs. Hanan's daughter, Mr. J. M. Sullivan of Portland, returned with them for a week's visit.

Both Mr. and Mrs. John Hanan are recovering from severe colds and flu. A dance was held Saturday night at the Rod and Gun Club. A good crowd was in attendance.

The wrecker piloted by Major Daughn was put to some strenuous use Saturday night when a truck of lumber en route from the valley got mired down in the mud hole this side of Fischer's camp. Eight cars also were stalled behind the truck.

Mrs. Harvey Johnson, operator of Lorraine's Beauty Shop, returned last week after a visit with her daughter in North Hollywood, Calif.

Mrs. Johnson brought her five year old granddaughter, Linda Goodspeed, to spend the summer with her. She announces the shop is now open for business.

Many people are on the sick list in this area suffering with colds and flu. Among them are the two young children and baby of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hanan.

Martin McCann who is going to work for the forest service this summer, left for Oak Ridge with Carl Ball, and Earl Stahlman.

A trap shoot was held at the Rod and Gun Club Sunday. Bud Osher was high with 24 points. Some of the boys seemed to be lacking in getting the lead out in the right places. Jim Healy of Bend was a participant.

Mrs. Otis White and Mrs. E. W. Bray were co-hostesses at a baby shower honoring Mrs. John Cannon Wednesday night last week at the White home.

Present were Mrs. L. Byrket, Miss Mary Impson, Miss Lillian Carlson, Miss Mildred Gooch, Mrs. Lillian Leach, Mrs. Elsie Hoyt, Mrs. Eva Wise, Mrs. Mildred Ray, Mrs. Ed Hanan, Miss Marlene White, Miss Jean Bray, Mrs. Lorraine Sophy, the honored guest, Mrs. Cannon, Mrs. White and Mrs. Bray, hostesses. Refreshments were served.

Three new pupils registered at the new grade school here. They are Nancy Ramsey, first grader, whose father is with the Army Engineers, having moved here from the Dorena dam project; Bessie Crenshaw, seventh grader, and her brother, Lloyd, third grade, whose father is also with the engineers.

The Girl Scouts will meet Monday night, March 21, at 7:30 p.m. at the Idanha Theater. Awards will be made to those winning merits.

Mrs. G. R. Dickie of Detroit and Mrs. William Piercy of Vancouver, Wash., returned to their respective homes last week after an extended visit with friends and relatives in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Champion called on Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wright while in Salem last week. Joe is geting along as well as can be expected and they plan to return to Detroit this week.

Mrs. G. R. Dickie announced she will reopen the Detroit Hotel in about two weeks.

The hotel is undergoing a generaly housecleaning, and replumbing, after being closed since early December.

The new structure now under construction about a mile east of town is the Sheet Metal Shop. Proprietors are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Striggow.
