Measles and chicken pox have been prevalent here the past two weeks, and a number of children have been absent from school. Victims of the diseases include Darleen Joaquin, Ross Klutke, the children of Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Heirte, and many others.

Laura Jo Rambo, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melbourne Rambo, was painfully injured Saturday when a nail penetrated her knee.

The Gates Woman's Club held a cooked food sale Saturday morning at Heath Bros. store. Coffee and cake were sold.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson had as their guests several days last week her mother, Mrs. William Wells her grandmother, Mrs. Edna Raymond and sister, Mrs. Floyd Lewman, all of Eugene. Mr. Wells and Mr. Lewman joined their wives for a Sunday visit before returning to Eugene.

Glen Hearing of Portland has rented the space in Richard's Tavern for a barber shop and will take possession soon as the remodeled quarters are ready for occupancy. Hearing has been employed in an east side Portland shop.

Elkhorn

By JEAN ROBERTS

We went smelt fishing this week. People lined the banks of the Sandy River, dipping and scooping and lifting the elusive smelt from the deep water.

Cars were jammed bumper to bumper all through the little town of Troutdale, and impromptu parking lots were doing a booming business.

People perched on rocks, on bridges, in bats and even overflowed into the river itself.

High school: Frederick Rugh, social studies; Miss Hope Baney, English and music; Mrs. Edith Mason, home economics; and Vernon Todd, mathematics.

Hanging to a steep bank were three men. One had secure footing. The second was clutching a stick held by the first and was holding onto the third who was desperately dipping for smelt.

Further downstream a rather plump woman had waded waist deep into the river and was fishing unperturbed as the icy water swept around her.

Almost everyone was wet and cold but happy.

Ray Sischo, Mr and Mrs. Lou Myers and Ike Myers went to the Sandy River near Troutdale Tuesday to dip smelt. They returned with the limit and reported the fishing very good and the fish large.

Mrs. Ike Myers entertained the Elkhorn women with a dinner at her home Wednesday in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Bill Bickett. Present were Mrs. Merwin Knox and children and Mrs. Helen McClurg, both of Lyons, Mrs. Bickett, Mrs. Carl Longnecker, Mrs. Ray Sischo, Mrs. Lou Myers and Mrs. Ray Roberts.

Mr and Mrs. Claude Reinoehl, Dolores and Alan of Newport were visitors Wednesday and Thursday at the Ray Roberts home

Phil Dooley has purchased a tract of timber at Myrtle Creek in southern Oregon. He is moving his "cat" there the first of the week. They expect to move within two weeks and camp near there for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ike Myers were dinner guests at the Ray Roberts home Friday night. Mr. and Mrs. Merwin Knox and children of Lyons came later and the evening was spent playing pinochle.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Dooley attended the funeral of Mrs. Dooley's grandmother, Mrs. Flora Nix, at Stevenson, Wash., Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Russell kept Mike while his parents were gone.

Several Elkhorn families spent a pleasant evening at the Bohemian Hall near Mill City, going from here were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Longnecker, Bob and John Mr. and Mrs. Ike Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bickett and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Roberts. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Merwin Knox and Mr. and Mrs. John McClurg of Lyons.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster of Portland visited their daughter and son-in-law

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Dooley over the week end.
Mr. and Mrs. Vern Thomas of Mill City were Elkhorn visitors Sunday.
