By MRS. J. A. WRIGHT

The Women's Civic Club met at the home of Mrs. Ray Johnson Wednesday evening with 13 members attending.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Johnson, vice president, in the absence of the president, Mrs. J. Cal Schlador.

A nominating committee, Mrs. S. T. Moore, Mrs. Earl Parker and Mrs. J. A. Wright, was appointed. Three of the five delegates allotted to the club were elected to attend the County Federation of Women's Clubs at Macleay Grange Hall April 22. They were Mrs. Ray Johnson, Mrs. Archie Mattoon and Mrs. Parker.

Plans were discussed for getting the library in shape. It will be set up in a small room in the grade school building.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. John Weisgerber and Mrs. Nolan Rasmick.

Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. S. T. Moore at the Ranger Station.

A fire at the John Hanan home brought out three fire trucks, but the blaze was extinguished before they arrived. Volunteering were neighbors Mrs. Cliff Peterson and Mrs. Otis White. Damage to the roof was estimated at about $20.

Mrs. Glen Dryden who has been here for a week's visit with her husband returned to Enterprise Thursday accompanied by Mrs. Gale Fagan. Mrs. Dryden expects to return here after disposing of her property in Enterprise.

At club meeting Mrs. Eli Bangs principal of the grade school and second grade teacher, gave a report on the success of the school lunch program which was started last week at the new grade school building.

Mrs. Bangs does all the meal planning and buying as well as getting the lunch started each day. Mothers are taking turns with the cooking. Three women work each week and have the assistance of the home economics class. This year the government pays for milk for each child. It is expected that the program will work much simpler by next year, as they can have everything planned in advance. Volunteers say that the benefits of the program to the children repay them for all the work.

The Detroit Theater was closed Wednesday evening when one of the generators burned out at the Idanha Power Co plant.

Mr and Mrs William Cauble Jr. made a trip to Portland Wednesday and returned Thursday.

Mrs. W. R. Donham and son Danny of Portland are visiting a few days at the home of her sister, Mrs. Nolan Rasmick. They were accompanied by Jerry Noble who will spend this week with his mother, Mrs. Rasmick.

The Santiam Food Mart has rented a corner of the store for a watch repair shop to be operated by Pat Gammon of Toledo.

Roy Newport was in town for a few days looking after business interests. Mrs. Newport has been quite ill in Portland recently.

Gale Dorothy of Mill City was visiting his brother Emmett here.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hansen and family attended a family reunion at her brother's, Glen Schaffer, of LaComb.

Jane Hillman and Martha Kauko of Salem stayed overnight Saturday at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Kauko. Sunday they called on the Frank Wilsons.

The Detroit market is putting in a line of appliances, including radios and refrigerators; cameras and a wider line of general merchandise and drugs.

The North Fork. Troops from four towns, Gates, Mill City, Lyons and Stayton were there. In competitive events the Stag patrol of Gates were winners over all others. Those from Gates were George Rambo, Clifford Ambers, Jon Burton, Mervin Haun, George Burton, Jerry Larson, Philip Hayward, Herbert Romey, Edward Bishop, Allen Vale, Gordon Devine and Ronald Knapp. Scoutmaster Gale Carey accompanied the boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Thornson and son of Lyons were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melbourne Rambo.

A group of friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Mary Howell Saturday in observance of the birthday of Mrs. Rosa Ruten. Following a no-host luncheon the afternoon was spent informally. Gifts were presented to Mrs. Ruten by those present: her daughter, Mrs. Louisa Romey and son Daniel, Mrs. Ben Wigglesworth and baby, Mrs. Clare Hennessy, Mrs. Arthur Blackburn, Mr. and Mrs. William Wight, Mr. and Mrs. Tillmon Ruins, Mrs. Maud Shepherd of Mill City and the hostess, Mrs. Howell.

Mrs. Minnie Everton who spent the winter at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Burrel Cole, is visiting in Washington with her son and family in Wallula and her brother in Yakima.

Mr. and Mrs. Burrel Cole have received word from their son, Thuro, who is in service and stationed at Alameda, Calif., of his hospitalization for a severe case of the flu.

There have been more than 30 cases of measles, chicken pox and severe colds reported here in the last two weeks in the schools and as many as 15 pupils from one room have been absent at a time. The latest case of measles is Carol Sue, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ball, who became ill Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Davis motored to Corvallis Sunday to attend a program on which their son, Ed mund, student at OSC, sang.

A no-host dinner was held at the social rooms of the high school last Sunday with members of the Sunday school and congregation of the local Church of Christ attending.

A special Easter service and program has been prepared, to be held next Sunday. An invitation is extended to all. Following the service children from the Sunday school will be taken on a hike by Miss Jean Cunningham of Eugene.
