Idanha

By MRS. REBA SNYDER

Mrs. Nina Tucker, her son, Frank, and daughter Delphine and Delphine's friend, Shirley Willis, returned to Idanha from a visit with Howard Parton of Battle Ground, Wash.

Arnold Snyder, who is with the Army transport service, flew from Seattle to Portland Friday night to spend the week end at home. He took the bus from Portland to Salem and was met by his parents and Frank E. Payne. Mr. and Mrs. Snyder entertained 16 friends of the family in his honor Saturday night. Arnold returned to duty Sunday.

Don and Louise Farrell and small daughter of Sandy were week end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Wolfe and her sister, Mrs. Allen and family. The Allen twin babies are at last with their parents after their long stay in the hospital.

Jerry Pittam made two trips to Salem the past week for treatment of a badly infected ear, which is now much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Chet Slater and Vern of Sweet Home visited at the John Ray home Sunday and Monday. Mr. Slater also put a new unit in Hiram Wolfe's deep freeze while here.

The Plywood mill shut down Tuesday for a short time. Some repairs are being made. Vern Alvin went to Portland in regard to business, returning Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schaffer made a business trip to Salem Wednesday and called on Mrs. Schaffer's mother there.

William Harris, former school bus driver, has moved to Tillamook. Jack Haseman is now driving the school bus.

The Idanha Fire Patrol made a fast run to Detroit Thursday to extinguish a chimney fire at the John Hanan home. Damage was estimated at $20.

Wane Gierman who has been working at Girod's store moved to Stayton where he has employment. Mrs. Lee Thornton is now working at the store.

Richard F. Ray and family of Seattle spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ray, on his return trip from California. Mr. Ray is Boeing Aircraft representative in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney and Tom and John Bowers and family visited the Jack Wilson family over the week end and stopped in Salem on their return.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schaffer were Mill City visitors Sunday.

Walter Reynolds, who underwent a major eye operation April 7 in Portland, is doing nicely.

The Ford Harvey mill started operation Tuesday. Their logs come from near Detroit.

Jim Montgomery, SP conductor in the Canyon in recent years, has been hospitalized in San Francisco for some time. He is a resident of Albany and his brother, John Montgomery, lives in Mill City.

John Montgomery, in answer to certain published reports about his cat, has countered with other allegations (unfounded) about the Wolverton dog.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Veness and children and Mr. and Mrs. William Dotson an children had dinner with the James Reeds in Molalla Sunday.
