Boy Scout Troop 43, Detroit-Idanha, is taking a week end trip to the lava caves beyond Bend and the Peterson Rock Gardens near Redmond. Of the 32 boys now in the troop, 28 plan to make the trip, accompanied by Sol Tucker, assistant scoutmaster.

Besides this large number of Boy Scouts, there are 34 Cub Scouts, according to Jack Laddusaw, scoutmaster. The boys already are making plans to enter the fishing derby, sponsored, with some worthwhile prizes, by the national organization.

Arthur's Cafe is again making improvements. A room 14 x 21 feet is being added, with shelves for grocery supplies needed in the restaurant. ## Elkhorn

By JEAN ROBERTS

The Gates hill road is again passable, for Elkhorn-Mill City travel, after being closed since last November by snow. This is positively a fair weather road, as the deep ruts at the bottom of the hill indicate.

The road was opened sometime in the past week of good weather by some intrepid individual, presumably in a jeep, with a sharp ax and a dauntless spirit. There were eight or more fir trees nine to 15 inches in diameter obstructing the roadway. These had been chopped through and rolled out of the way.

A few patches of snow still linger near the top of the ridge. All in all, the road is passable, if it doesn't rain and if someone has the agility of a mountain goat.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Longnecker were called to Silverton Friday by the death of Mr. Longnecker's father who had been ill for some time.

Easter guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ike Myers were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bickett and family and Mrs. Ray Roberts and family.

An Easter egg hunt was held at the Elkhorn school Friday afternoon for all the pupils and their younger brothers and sisters.

More and more people are becoming aware of the hazard in second growth fir trees surrounding their homes.

Ercell Wilson, Mehama logging operator, and Ray Roberts, Elkhorn timber faller, were employed Saturday to fall several trees threatening the newly purchased home of Ken Golliet, Mehama merchant, on the Little North Fork.

A small second growth tree already was resting on one corner of the roof, the result of a recent windstorm. The house was only slightly damaged.
