

DETROIT

By MRS. J. A. WRIGHT

The Detroit-Idanha PTA benefit given at the old grade school building Thursday and Friday evenings was a decided success. The building was crowded both evenings and some standing room was sold Friday evening. A total of $236.35 was grossing from the sale of tickets and pies after the show.

The one-act farce, "Calling All Carr's" put on by Bruce Gordon, Betty Pittam, Rilla Schaefer, Reba Snyder, Warren Stahl, Harry Gulliford, Frank New and Roselle Vickers, with Mrs. John Ray directing, displayed lots of talent.

The minstrel show had 25 characters.

They were Joan Cauble, Ben Todd, Mrs. Eli Bangs, Eldon White, Russell Hoyt, S. T. Moore, Dick Thornton, Ronald Morgan, Dick Haseman, Harold White, Frank Wilson, Ruth Skidmore, Mrs. E. W. Bray, Jean Bray, Shirley Hammer, Dorothy Morgan, Mary Gordon, Marlene White, Frankie Payne, Bob Budlong, Virginia O'Brien, Mary Impsem and Lillian Carlson. Nolan Rasnick was interlocutor and Mrs. Otis White and Mrs. John Ray directed.

The music of Mrs. Gordon Skidmore and drum playing of Scott Young added much to the success of the show.

First prize for ticket selling went to James White; second to Billie Peterson and third to Donna McKeever. Wardrobe custodians were Mrs. Earl Parker and Colleen Merrill.

The program committee included Mrs. Sol Tucker, Mrs. Albert Snyder, Mrs. Bruce Gordon, Mrs. Cliff Peterson and Mrs. Richard Hansen.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Buettell and daughter Trinnie of Salem were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Byrkit. They went fishing on the Metolius.

Mrs. Lauritz Hansen who was taken to the Matson Hospital in Milwaukee a week ago is improving.

Mrs. Emma Ramage and daughter Joan and son Webb of Salem visited last week end at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Champion. A guest at their home the previous week was her nephew, Bill Fry, also of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Stout and Mrs. Gale Fagen brought the Glen Dryden's furniture to Detroit from Enterprise last week.

Henry White, assistant forest supervisor, was here on business three days last week and stayed overnight at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Parker.

A social club known as the Engineers Club to provide recreation for the engineers and their families has been organized. Officers are Harry Rutherford, chairman, and Ruskin Smith, secretary. They put on their first entertainment at the Rod and Gun Club last Saturday evening and about 100 people attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Russell and Mr. and Mrs. Lang, all of Portland, were week end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Rynearson and Otto Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Layman and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Mattoon spent the opening of fishing season on the Yaquina River. No luck—the river was very high.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel B. Manning and two children, Barbara Jean, in the fourth grade, and John in the first grade, moved here recently and started operation of the Canyon Cafe on Sunday. They have as chef one of the finest cooks in the Northwest—Robert Manning, brother of the manager—who has cooked in the Multnomah and other large hotels. All meals will be personally inspected by the manager before they are served.

The Detroit Telephone Co. is installing a PBX board at Mongold as additional service for the Army Engineers.

Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Johnson and daughter Caroline of Portland were week end visitors of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Johnson.

ROSE LALACK WED TO ELMER CULWELL

The wedding of Miss Rose Lalack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lalack, of Dallas, to Elmer Culwell of Lyons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Culwell, took place Sunday afternoon in the Community Church.

The bride was attired in a soft blue afternoon frock with white hat and blue veil, her corsage being of pink and white carnations. Her only attendant, Mrs. Andrew Lalack Jr., of Salem, wore an afternoon gown of dusty rose.

Her brother, Andrew Lalack Jr., of Salem, escorted the bride to the altar. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Wayne Watkins. Best man was the groom's brother, A. B. Culwell of Lyons. Ushers were Joseph Lalack and Howard Naeue.

Mrs. Charles Power of Lyons sang, accompanied by Miss Alice Smith.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Rev. Watkins. Mrs. Aledd Hutchinson poured and the bride's cake was cut by Mrs. Hershel Culwell. Mrs. John Swan, Mrs. Jessie Short, of Salem, and Mrs. Watkins assisted. Mrs. Joseph Lalack and Miss Betty Bentley of Lyons passed the guest book.

After a short wedding trip the couple will be at home in Lyons.

DOROTHY SHUEY MARRIES QUE HAINES OF ASTORIA

The Presbyterian Church was the scene of a lovely wedding Sunday afternoon when Miss Dorothy Shuey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Shuey, was married to Que W. Haines Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Que W. Haines of Hawarden, Ia. The double ring ceremony took place at 2 o'clock, with Dr. David Ferguson officiating.

The church altar was decorated with large baskets of pink cherry blossoms and white lilies. Also lighted candelabrams, lighted candles in all the windows with white satin bows marking the pews down the aisle.

Lighting the candles were Mrs. Mavis Crass of Wheeler and Mrs. Mary Ann Johnson. They wore pink and blue marquisette gowns. For the music Mrs. Donald Sheythe sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer," with Mrs. Robert Schroeder as accompanist; and also playing the wedding marches.

The bride was charming in a gown of heavy ivory slipper satin. Designed with off-shoulder effect with nylon yoke. The sleeves were long, ending in a pint on the hand. The dress was a fitted bodice with a long train from the full skirt and tiny buttons all down the back and wore a double strand of pearls, gift from the groom.

The bride carried a white Bible, tipped with a rose pink orchid and streamers of white ribbon.

Mrs. Arlene Case of Astoria, sister of the groom, was matron of honor, wearing pale yellow with bouquets of pastel flowers in the material, made in an off-shoulder style, with fitted waist and full skirt.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Lila Mae Isom of Portland, wearing pale pink and Mrs. Eva Beck in pale blue made identically in style to that of the honor attendant. All carried colonial bouquets of pink and white carnations with ribbons of yellow, pink and white, and head bands of pink and white carnations.

Flower girl was little Doris Ann Hutchinson, dressed in white as other attendants and carrying a basket of pink blossoms. Paul Ray Morris of Cottage Grove, dressed in dark trousers and white coat, was ring bearer.

Norman Haines, brother of the groom, served as best man and ushers were Robert Crass of Wheeler and John Case of Astoria.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Shuey chose an aqua blue dress embroidered with white beads, grey hat with pink flowers and grey accessories. Her corsage was pink rosebuds and white carnations.

The reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. The table was beautiful, covered with a white hand crocheted lace cloth, with lighted tapers and bouquets of pink and white carnations on each side of the large bride's cake.

Cutting the bride's cake was Mrs. William Norris of Cottage Grove. Mrs. Harold K. Freeman of Portland cut the groom's cake. Pouring was Mrs. Curtis Cline, and in charge of the punch bowl was Mrs. Ed Rupp.

Passing the guest book was Miss Ina Pearl Allen of Amity.

Taking care of the gift table were Mary Ann Johnson and Mavis Crass. Assisting with the serving was Mrs. James Swan.

For going away the bride chose a red and white dress with navy blue topcoat, to which her orchid was pinned. A white hat and white accessories.

After a wedding trip to Iowa the couple will be at home May 18 in Astoria where the bride is a nurse at St. Mary's hospital and the groom employed by the Northwest Cities Gas Co.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Carl Toney, cousins of the bride, of Longview, Wash., Harry Sinkler, New Rockford, Dak.; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Short of Independence; Mrs. Vivian Hoemig, Salem; Mrs. Catherine Lyon and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Stevens, Lyons; and Mrs. Tilton Rains and son and Miss Georgia Shane, Gates.
