DISC PLOW

The large heat-treated discs of this plow do a job in land where penetration or scouring is a problem. Works fine in hard, stony, root-y, sticky, waxy or abrasive soil.
A good plow for soil conservation... leaves some trash in furrow to resist blowing or washing.

A shower honoring Mrs. Marvin Stafford, a recent bride, was given by Mrs. Burrel Cole and Mrs. Hollis Turnidge at the latter's home Wednesday afternoon last week. Following a luncheon and the opening of the gifts by the bride, the afternoon was spent informally. Gifts were received from Mrs. Charles Smith, Miss Eileen Eccleston, Miss Georgia Shane, Mrs. Elmer Stewart, Mrs. Merle Devine, Mrs. Glen Henness, Mr. and Mrs. George Stafford, Mrs. Arthur Blackburn, Mrs. Norman Garrison, Mrs. Steve Champ, Mrs. Melbourne Rambo, Mrs. Clarence Rush, Mrs. Anna Nystrom, Mrs. Harold Wilson, Mrs. Henry Eccleston, Mrs. Albert Millsap, Mrs. Harry Keiser, Mrs. Clare Henness, Mrs. Clarence Ball, Miss Carmen Stafford and the hostesses.

Mrs. Lily Lake was honored last Tuesday afternoon when several of her friends and neighbors surprised her. A no-host luncheon preceded the afternoon's visit by Mrs. Chris Knutson, Mrs. Mary Egglestrom, Mrs. Burrel Cole and Mrs. Hollis Turnidge. Mrs. Theodore Burton and Billy returned from Seattle the last of the week after a visit there at the home of Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Burton's mother. Mrs. Henry Eccleston has returned from a week's visit in Portland at the homes of relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Stafford, Mrs. George Stafford and Miss Carmen Stafford motored to Salem the last of the week to bring Kenneth Weathers home from the Salem Memorial Hospital where he had been confined following an auto accident in which he lost nine teeth and suffered other injuries.

Albert Sturdevant of West Stayton was a Sunday caller at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilson. Mr. Sturdevant attended school here several years ago and made his home with the Wilsons.

Mrs. Paul Davis left Monday for Vancouver, Wash., where she will be hospitalized for a week, for a check-up and a minor operation.

The three small children of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Park have all been quite ill the past week with the measles. There are a number of cases of chick-enpox also, and among those out of school with the disease are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stewart.

Seventeen members of the Gates student body, accompanied by Mrs. T. R. Burton, attended the junior-senior banquet Saturday night at the Spa in Salem.

The Gates Womens Club met in regular session in the social rooms of the high school Thursday afternoon. Following a no host luncheon the business meeting was called by the president, Mrs. Elmer Stewart. Two newly elected officers, Mrs. Albert Millsap, secretary, and Mrs. Velma Carey, treasurer, were installed. Mrs. Steve Champ, outgoing treasurer, made her annual report. She reported a total of $1342.80 in the general and building funds. The president appointed the standing committees for the coming year.

It was decided to discontinue the social meetings of the club for the summer, meetings to be held only on the second Thursday of each month. The meeting place will be in the homes of the members and no-host luncheons served.

Two new members were welcomed into the club: Mrs. Paul Davis and Mrs. Elmer Klutke. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Stewart June 9. All members are urged to attend because a discussion will be held on the advisability of selling the lot owned by the club, which is located in Gates, and of the purchase of one less valuable as a business site, to be used for the new clubhouse.

The new house, not yet completed, built by Davis and Park, contractors, has been sold. It is reported the place will be ready for occupancy by the new owners in about two weeks. Dr. Robert Silvis was a Gates visitor Sunday and while here called on Mr. and Mrs. Ned Richards. Dr. Silvis was a former resident of Mill City and maintained offices there for a number of years.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Nordhal of Van Nuys, Calif., have arrived in Gates and will occupy a home recently purchased here, as soon as the present tenants can find another place to live.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Garrison were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Follett and two sons and Mr. and Mrs. Vern Follett and sons of Alsea.

Mr. and Mrs. Clare Henness, Miss Carmen Stafford and Gerald Garrison spent the week end at Suttle Lake boating and fishing.

Mrs. Walter Brisbin left Saturday for North Bend and will return Friday. She attended grand lodge of the Rebekahs. Only past noble grands of the lodge were in attendance.
