FOUR NEW ROSES WIN ALL-AMERICA AWARD FOR 1950

FASHION

MISSION BELLS

CAPISTRANO

SUTTER'S GOLD

Introducing 1950's Roses of distinction! These four brand new "Oscar" winners will hold places of honor in thousands of gardens next summer. Fashion, the only floribunda chosen, is coral pink overlaid with gold; Mission Bells, a hybrid tea, is salmon colored; Capistrano is a hybrid tea of soft rose pink; Sutter's Gold, also a hybrid tea, is yellow with pink shading.

The coveted All-America designation is awarded on the basis of two-year tests made in eighteen official trial gardens located throughout the country. Only plants achieving the highest point rating on actual performance under widely varied climatic and soil conditions are chosen for the honor. The 1950 winners will be available from leading nurserymen in time for planting this fall.

Mrs. J. C. Fowler has returned from Portland.

The next Engineers Club dance will be Friday, June 10, at the Rod and Gun Club.
