

Mill City

Mrs. Robert Veness, Carol and Shirley left early Tuesday morning on the City of Portland for Chicago to visit Mrs. Veness' parents and sister and spend a few days in Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blazek and Carol Jane, and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Dorothy and Jean Wootten, of Dayton, Wyo., left Monday for a vacation at Yellowstone Park.

Mrs. John Feeley went to Portland Tuesday to arrange for entrance into the University of Oregon extension school this summer.

Vincent Palmer and Mr. Campbell of CBI were fishing on the Sun Sunday.

Larry Wright, Marion County deputy sheriff who covers the Canyon territory, got his pictures in the paper pointing to bars saved by a prisoner who got out of his cell and landed in the arms of waiting officers.

ON THE TRAILER COURTS

AT THE SILVER SADDLE
Operators of the Silver Saddle Service Station and court are Mr. and Mrs. Roland Hopper of Salem. They have been in Mill City about two months. Mr. Hopper operated a filling station in Salem for five years and prior to that was with the state highway department.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Jones, who have the garage adjoining the Silver Saddle service station, have lived in the valley about 11 years but only one year in Mill City. Mr. Jones was with the Kuckenberger Construction Co. for almost two years and the family lived in Gates at that time.

The Jones have a six year old son, Darrell who is now visiting his grand parents in Wilder, Idaho.

Friends of the Dudley Jones living in the court are Mr. and Mrs. Myron Long who have been spending the winter in Arizona. Mr. Long is working with Kuckenberger Const. Co. as operator-mechanic. He and Dudley Jones have worked together since 1941.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Sullenberger of Couer d'Alene, Idaho are two year residents of the court. Mr. Sullenberger is employed by Kuckenberger. Over the week-end they went fishing on Marion creek.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Hough and son, Jack William, of North Richland, Washington arrived three weeks ago. Mr. Hough is employed by the Bonneville Power Administration. Sunday they went to Scio to a family reunion at the home of his aunt, Mrs. L. C. Stucker.

Mr. and Mrs. J. X. Snyder of Klamath, Falls are new arrivals. Mr. Snyder is a stove repairman. He has been spending his leisure fishing. Mrs.

Snyder's hobby is her birds; she has six parakeets.

AT MARTIN'S

Owners of the Martin Trailer Court are Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hanson. They are originally from the state of Washington. Mr. Hanson is the saw filer at the Mill City Manufacturing company. He developed the court this last year.

Mr. and A. E. Bach, recently of Richland, Washington are new residents in the court. Mr. Bach is employed in the engineering department of Consolidated Builders, Inc. The Bachs were originally from Medina, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. McCabe of Portland are also in the court. They have been in and around Mill City for the past two or three years.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Woodrum and son, Melvin came here from Salem. Mr. Woodrum is compressor-operator for the army engineers. Monday Mrs. Bach, Mrs. MacElvaine and Mrs. Woodrum drove to Salem.

Other new residents are Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Miller of Seattle, Wash. Mr. Miller is employed as a carpenter by Consolidated Builders. The Millers drove to Breitenbush Sunday.

For the past two months Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur C. Carlson of Portland have been Mill City residents. Mr. Carlson is with the army engineers. They have their home in Portland spend many of their week-ends there.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton of Los Angeles and residents of Mill City for the past four weeks pulled and directed the car and trailer of Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Allen over the Detroit road Saturday. The Allens are also of Los Angeles. Mr. Allen is employed by the Shea Construction Co. putting through the tunnel for the dam.

The Lee Logging Co. will start operations in the Canyon soon. Mr. Lee and Mr. Lemke, his partner, of Sweet Home, purchased lots near the CBI development from Bob Veness Monday.

Idanha

By REBA SNYDER

Nadine L. Surgeon came the past week to make an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Braxton Fouts and her sister, Mrs. Richard Cannon. She is matron and teacher at the Bainerd Indian school in Hot Springs, S. Dak.

Mrs. Frank New, Eva Lou and Sally, and Barbara Floyd left Friday afternoon for Sublimity where they will pick strawberries for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ray attended a week end family reunion in Cashmere, Wash. There were five brothers and sisters and their families present, four of whom Mr. Ray had not seen for 37 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Athel Savage and Edna Golden attended the strawberry festival in Lebanon Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Brown went to Salem where she will remain for a few days and consult her doctor.

Mrs. Bill Hamilton and Mrs. Chas. Cannon left last week to pick strawberries. Mrs. Hamilton had the misfortune to hurt her back so they had to return home.

Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Floyd and Ronnie and Mr. and Mrs. Otis Floyd and family had good fishing at Suttle Lake Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Ediger, of Dallas, parents of Mrs. Henry Hiebert, came Wednesday for a visit with their daughter and family. They returned to Dallas Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hiebert of Independence and Mr. and Mrs. Will Hiebert of Dallas and families gave their brother Henry Hiebert and family a pleasant surprise when they drove in Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Black of Merrill, Ore., spent the week end with Mrs. Black's sister, Mrs. Sol Tucker. They had sport of shooting a bear at the garbage dump above Idanha while here.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Floyd and family visited Mrs. Floyd's mother Saturday and Sunday. Frank New accompanied them as far as Sublimity where he stayed with his family at the berry field until their return trip.

The shrill scream of the fire siren awakened firemen at 3:30 a.m. Monday. The fire was about a half mile above town. A car owned by Norman Thammason burned and was badly damaged.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ellison of Thunder Hawk, S. Dak., came last Thursday to visit Mrs. Ellison's father, Even Evenson, and her brother, Eddie Evenson and family. They left for home Tuesday.

Mrs. Gwen Gates who has been teaching school in West Salem the past year, is at her home in Idanha. Her future plans are indefinite.

Mrs. Jerry Pittam and Mrs. Frankie Payne were in Stayton Tuesday.
