By EVA BRESSLER

A very pretty wedding was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank White when their eldest daughter, Leila Mae, became the bride of Gerald Rockwell, son of Mrs. Nellie Dahlenberg, on Saturday afternoon, July 9. The Rev. Willard Buckner officiated. Attending were about 40 relatives and friends.

The bride wore a teal blue floor length gown, and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and pink rosebuds, with pink and white ribbon streamers. Her only attendant was her sister, Mary Ellen White, who wore a blue and pink suit. Lester Luke, nephew of the bridegroom, acted as best man. Aladean McDonald sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Leonard Smith who also played the wedding march. Mrs. White chose for her daughter's wedding a grey suit, and Mrs. Dahlenberg was attired in maroon. Following the ceremony, cake and punch were served to about 40. After a short wedding trip the couple will make their home in Mehama. He is employed at Etzel mill.

Installation of officers was held at Faith Rebekah lodge in Lyons with Mrs. Elsie Myers, district deputy pres-sident, and staff installing the following:

Helen McClurg, past noble grand, Frances McCarley, noble grand, Blanche Wagner, vice grand, Garnett Bassett, secretary, Beulah Lewis, treasurer, Mildred Carr, warden, Helen Andersen, conductor, Rose Berry, chaplain, Carrie Naue, inside guardian, Millie Bickett, outside guardian, Jean Roberts, flag bearer, Alta Bodecker, RSNB, Elsie Myers, LSNB, Eva Bressler, LSVG, Alma Olmstead, financial secretary, Hazel Shields, RSVG, and Mabel Bass, musician, who will be installed at a later date. At the close of the meeting a pot luck supper was served by the losing side in a contest which had been concluded.

Mrs. Mike Schwindt was hostess for the meeting of the Altar Society at her home. Plans were made for a bazaar which will be held in the middle of August on the church premises.
