SANTIAM K. OF C.S. TO ATTEND PORTLAND NATIONAL PARLEY

Edw. J. Bell, Stayton, secretary of the Oregon State Knights of Columbus, said this week that many members of the organization are planning to attend the national convention of that organization in Portland Aug. 14 to 18.

The program will begin Sunday at the Portland Hotel with a welcome session. A naval flotilla will arrive in Portland Monday. Tuesday the convention will be opened with Solemn Pontifical Mass with Most Rev. Edward D. Howard, D.D., archbishop of Portland, celebrant, followed by a civic reception in the Neighbors of Woodcraft auditorium.

The same evening at the Neighbors hall will be a banquet for 1500, and Wednesday night.

HOWELL REUNION SUNDAY

The 16th annual homecoming of the Howell school, four miles east of Stayton, will be held this Sunday.

A basket dinner will be served at 12:30, followed by a program of entertainment and sports.

Mrs. Roscoe Poole, B. L. Kirsch and Tex Kimsey have charge of the program.

Even though the school has been closed for several years, the reunions unflinchingly bring many former students to the little country school.

Mrs. E. T. Ware, Stayton, is secretary-treasurer of the organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Roten of Me-hama visited his mother, Mrs. Mattie Murdock, Friday.

S. C. Dilley of Florence, Wash., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Bert Tur-nidge.
