By MRS. J. A. WRIGHT

Rodney Moore, PFC, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Moore, of Detroit, and Miss Colleen Mermillion, daughter of Mrs. Rose Mermillion, also of Detroit were recently married in Cheyenne. They have been here about a week, visiting their parents, Saturday evening a reception was given them at the Moore home with Mrs. Mermillion as co-hostess. About 80 attended. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Chamberlain, Kelso, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Hal McClary, Portland, oldtimers here; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Blair, Aurora, Mr. and Mrs. R. Morris, Seio, and Bob Young, Marion Forks. Other guests were from Detroit and Idanha.

Many beautiful and useful gifts were received by the young couple. Pvt. Moore will report for duty in California Aug. 12. Mrs. Moore will remain here for a longer visit. Mrs. Guy Moore, one of the hostesses, has been postmistress here for 23 years. A fire of undetermined origin broke out in a shed at the back of the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Jeffries one day the early part of the week. Luckily it was discovered and put out by Joe Villar and Jeffries before it did any damage, and before the local fire department had completed getting out the hose. It occurred on one of the hottest days.

Mrs. J. E. Fry left by bus Friday to visit her children, her son, Edgar McCluer at Sydney, Nebraska, a daughter, Mrs. Ben Adams, and her mother, Mrs. Cynthia Wertz at Denver, Colorado and two other daughters, Mrs. Edna Anderson and Mrs. Mae Gordon at Grover, Colorado. Mrs. Fry expects to be gone about three weeks, slww sw...!

Miss Georgia Coffin, of Urbana, Ill. who is a librarian at the University of Illinois flew from Chicago to San Francisco where she visited friends and then flew to Salem, coming here by bus July 26 to visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Lloyd White. She will leave by bus August 6 and will make the return trip by plane stopping in Colorado to visit another Mrs. D. R. Stevens received word that her daughter, Mrs. Leon Wadsworth, is seriously ill in a Portland hospital. She left Monday to see her. Mr. Stevens, who works for the Army Engineers, went back to work Monday after being on two weeks with a hand injury.

Esther Fouts and Myrtle Geston made a house-to-house canvass in Idanha with dedication buttons. The Boy Scouts will serve ice cream and pop at the picnic grounds Sunday.

Mrs. Stanley Foster, whose husband is employed by Porte Construction Co. here, had a major operation at St. Charles Hospital in Bend Saturday morning. The Glen Drydens visited her Sunday and reported her doing very well.

A fire of undetermined origin broke out in a shed at the back of the James Jeffries home one day last week. It was discovered and put out by Joe Villar and Mr. Jeffries before it did any damage and before the local fire department reached the scene. It was one of the hottest days of the summer.

Mrs. J. E. Fry left by bus Friday to visit her children and mother. Her trip will take her to Nebraska and Colorado.

Miss Georgia Coffin of Urbana, Ill., a librarian at the university there, arrived here recently after a flight west to visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Lloyd White. She left Aug. 6 by way of Colorado where she will visit another sister.

Mrs. Frank Harrow of Mongold, who suffered a heart attack last week end, is able to be about again.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Larkin, their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Saunders and daughter Judy, all of Salem, were guests Saturday of the Frank Wilsons.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cauble Sr. spent the week end at their home here.

Miss Barbara Chrisman, Portland, came on Wednesday and will spend her vacation at the home of her parents.

B. C. Crawford of Boise was here several days this week visiting his granddaughter, Linda Goodspeed. He stayed at the Ray Johnson home. He formerly worked for the telephone company here.

Idanha

By MRS. RHEBA SNYDER

I wish to offer an apology to Idanha subscribers for the absence of Idanha news in the last two issues of the Enterprise.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schaffer visited with relatives in Mill City Saturday and with Mr. and Mrs. Don Norton at Roads End Sunday of last week.

Mrs. Anna Chamberlin of Dallas is visiting her niece, Mrs. Braxton Fouts, and Mr. Fouts.

A fire was discovered in the planer shed of the Idanha Lumber Co. by employees in time to be extinguished without damage Wednesday afternoon.

Jerry Pittam took his two nephews, Tommy and Larry Pittam, to visit their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Cochran in Jefferson Wednesday. Tommy and Larry have spent two and a half weeks here.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Pittam, former residents of Idanha, now of Roseburg, are the parents of a boy, Monty Glenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Brown went to Salem Friday morning where Mrs. Brown had a medical checkup.

Evelyn Martin was the honored guest at a pink and blue shower given for her by Mrs. Eddie Delker and Mrs. Jack Gulliford at the latter's home. Fifteen guests were present. Mrs. Mary Floyd, Shirley and Paul of Colton are visiting at the home of her sons, U. S. and Otis Floyd, the past week.

Mrs. Frank New and daughters, Eva Lou and Sally, and Edna Golden have returned to their homes after two weeks working in the bean fields near Turner.

A group of four men from Dallas came up Saturday to help put the rafters up on the new church. Edison Vickers, Quincy Smith, Mrs. Floy Storey, Mrs. Bernadine Stoll and M. S. Roselle Vickers attended the Legion convention in Salem Saturday. Reports were given the following Tuesday night.

Mrs. Lloyd Girod gave a party for friends of Jimmie on his seventh birthday Monday. Twenty-two children were served ice cream, cake and punch by the hostess.

Mrs. Benson of Crosby, N. Dak., arrived here recently to spend two or three weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lee Hopson, and Mr. Hopson.

Mrs. Edith Talsted and friend, Mr. Erry, have been visiting a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Geston. They returned to their homes in Milwaukee Friday.

Mrs. Paul Hopson and children of Portland have been here with her husband the past week.

Mrs. A. R. Snyder and sons, Donald and Leonard, returned to their home Wednesday after five weeks in the berry fields.

Albert Ring who celebrated his 89th birthday anniversary Friday, Aug. 5 was honored with a card shower. He received over 35 cards. Calling to congratulate him in the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. George Huffman, Mrs. Minnie Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl McGee of California. Surprising him to spend the evening for a few games of pinochle were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lewis, Beulah Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Naue, Ruby Naue, Mr. and Mrs. John McClurg, Ray Kampy, Fred Vaughn and Gus Steinberg.

Pauline Bridges surprised her parents Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bridges when a few close neighbors gathered for the evening to help Mrs. Bridges celebrate her anniversary. Pinochle furnished the entertainment. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Chet Grimes, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Jungwirth, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Nydigger, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thorsen of Crabtree.

Word was received here last week from County Judge Grant Murphy that work would begin on the Elk-horn-Gates road probably in September. At present all men and equipment are engaged in oiling projects which must be done during good weather. Just as soon as equipment can be spared the Gates road is to be improved and graded, stated Judge Murphy.

The Forest Service was busily employed tacking big red and orange signs reading 'Stop, closed to entry, except by permit,' on all roads leading off the county road into wooded areas, up this way Thursday. From the county road to the river remains open and anyone desiring to picnic or swim needs no permit.
